Course Description:

OOT512 Poets, 2 hours
Lecturing Professor and Professor of Record:
Dr. Richard P. Belcher, Jr.

This course examines the literary structure, themes, and history of the wisdom literature of the Old Testament, with an emphasis on understanding these texts in their own historical and literary context, how they fit into redemptive history, and what they mean for God's people today.

Course Objectives:

- To better understand Hebrew poetry and how to interpret it
- To examine how the concept of genre can help us interpret Scripture
- To see how the wisdom books fit into their context in the ancient Near East (ANE)
- To explore how this section of the canon fits into redemptive history and its relationship to Jesus Christ
- To begin to grapple with the issues raised in the wisdom books in light of the problems of the contemporary world

Meet the Professor

Lecturing Professor:

Dr. Richard P. Belcher is the Professor of Old Testament and Academic Dean of RTS Charlotte. He is an ordained minister in the PCA and pastored an urban nondenominational church in Rochester, NY for ten years before pursuing the Ph. D. This pastoral experience in an unusual and challenging setting gives him great insight into the practical, modern issues that will be faced by future pastors studying with him at RTS. He graduated from Covenant College and received his M. Div from Covenant Seminary. He also received an S.T.M. from Concordia Theological Seminary, and his Ph. D. is from Westminster Theological Seminary. He has served as stated supply for numerous churches in the area since coming to RTS Charlotte in 1995.

Grades

Forum Discussion (15%):

The student is required to interact in two (2) forums:

1. Student-Professor Posts (15 total posts)
 - A. Personal Introduction Forum: The student is required to post a brief personal introduction to the professor/class. Suggested details include your vocation, where you live, your church background, why you chose RTS, and what you hope to gain through the course (1 required post).
 - B. 5 Topical Discussion Q&A Forums: The student is required to answer each topical discussion question with one (1) response. The professor will acknowledge the student's answer and will follow up with a subsequent question to which the student must also answer with one (1) response. Each topical discussion question, therefore, requires two (2) total posts/responses from the student (Total of 5 forums x 2 posts = 10 total posts).
 - C. Student-Professor Forum: The student is required to post four (4) times in this forum. Posts in this forum should focus on course-related content such as research paper topics, lectures and reading assignments, or other academic issues related to the course.
2. Student-Student Forum (5 total posts)
 - A post may be either a new topic or a response to an already existing topic.

Examinations (Midterm 25%, Final 25%):

There are two examinations for this course. No helps are allowed, including Bibles. The midterm examination will cover the lectures from Lessons 1-11. The final examination will cover the lectures from Lessons 12-20. Both exams will include outlines of the Biblical books covered (provided for you in the LMS), multiple choice questions, which consist of terms, names, or concepts that have been discussed in class. There are also short essay questions and long essay questions, which are based on the Lesson Questions at the end of the lesson.

The midterm and final exams for this course are to be taken online in the Learning Management System (LMS). Please note that you will need to have a proctor for your exams. Your proctor can be anyone except a relative or current RTS Student. After clicking on the exam link you will be given detailed instructions about the exam. Please read these instructions carefully before entering the exam.

Research Paper (20%):

A research paper is required. It should focus on a particular passage from one of the wisdom books. See section titled "Research Paper Instructions" in this syllabus for more instructions.

Article Review (5%):

The review or summary of the Alexander article should focus on the four different views of Sheol (proponents, arguments against, etc.), with a clear statement of Alexander's views. This should be accomplished in about one page, typed, single spaced.

Reading Report (5%):

In addition to the textbooks for the course, the student must read the biblical books: Lamentations, Psalms, Song of Songs, Proverbs, Job, and Ecclesiastes. To receive full credit, the student must read all of the required readings listed at the beginning of each lesson.

Note: there is more reading for the Psalm lectures than the other lectures, which means you may want to spread some of the psalm reading out over several more weeks.

Mentor Report OR Course Application Paper (5%):

If you are enrolled in an RTS Global degree program, you are required to submit a mentor report at the end of the course. Every portion of the form (goals, summaries, assessments, and signatures) should be filled out completely by both the student and the mentor to receive full credit. You can download the Mentor Report form in your Canvas classroom.

If you are receiving your degree through another RTS campus (Orlando, Jackson, Charlotte, et. al.), or are a certificate student, or special student (e.g. from another seminary), you are asked to write a 200-word summary of how you perceive what you have learned in this course will fit into the objectives you have for your ministry, your educational goals, or other objectives you wish to achieve in life. Course Application Papers (CAP) that fall well-short of 200 words will receive a grade deduction.

Assignments:

Best practice for your time management is for you to submit all assignments at the end of the week in which they fall, using the upload links provided in the LMS. All work must be submitted by midnight of the course end date, per your course start letter. You are responsible for turning in all assignments on time; no late submissions are permitted. Any student who needs an extension must get approval from the Registrar prior to that time.

Research Paper Instructions

The paper can be centered on one passage or it can look at a major theme in one of the books studied in this course. If the paper focuses on a theme in a book, it is important to see how that theme relates to the rest of the canon (OT and NT). If the paper focuses on one passage, the following questions should be kept in mind:

- A. How does the passage fit into the rest of the book?
- B. What is the major theme of the passage?
- C. How is the theme developed (an outline of the passage may be helpful here)?
- D. Are there any significant literary, historical, or theological questions?
- E. Are there any major problems in the passage?
- F. Is the passage using prior revelation in any way?
- G. What is the message of the passage to the original reading audience?
- H. Is the passage used in a significant way in later biblical history (either OT or NT)?
- I. What is the message of the passage for today?

The paper could revolve around a particular literary, historical, or theological issue in the passage or a particular problem encountered in the text. The paper should reflect a developed argument centered around a theme or an issue in the passage.

The following are criteria that will be used to evaluate the paper:

1. Cogency of argument - is there a thesis statement, how well does the argument hang together, and how well are pertinent and fundamental points brought out?
 2. Discussions of historical context, genre, and redemptive history (where these are appropriate, but do not go overboard); just give the reader enough information to understand your paper. Some issues, like authorship, can be omitted or issues and bibliography related to authorship can be given in footnotes.
 3. The use of sources: this is a research paper so avoid study Bibles as a source; read as many commentaries as you can, including conservative commentaries, those from a critical perspective, and at least one older commentary, such as Calvin, Geneva series, etc. At least one journal article must be cited. Research is important and can be included in footnotes. Think of at least 8 sources.
 4. Do not make a Scripture reference as a footnote, but put it in parenthesis in the paper.
 5. The paper should be 10-15 pages, double-spaced, pages numbered, and with one inch margins on all sides, except the left margin should have a 1 1/4 inch margin.
- *Do not leave extra space between paragraphs

Student Learning Outcomes		Rubric	Mini-Justification
In order to measure the success of the curriculum, RTS has defined the following as the intended outcomes of the student learning process. Each course contributes to these overall outcomes. This rubric shows the contribution of this course to the MAR outcomes.		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Strong ➤ Moderate ➤ Minimal ➤ None
Articulation (oral & written)	Broadly understands and articulates knowledge, both oral and written, of essential biblical, theological, historical, and cultural/global information, including details, concepts, and frameworks.	Moderate	Articulation of essential biblical, theological, and historical information is covered, but mostly written, not oral
Scripture	Significant knowledge of the original meaning of Scripture. Also, the concepts for and skill to research further into the original meaning of Scripture and to apply Scripture to a variety of modern circumstances. (Includes appropriate use of original languages and hermeneutics; and integrates theological, historical, and cultural/global perspectives.)	Strong	The original meaning of the poetical books is covered with an emphasis on research in a paper and substantial time spent on meaning for today
Reformed Theology	Significant knowledge of Reformed theology and practice, with emphasis on the Westminster Standards.	Minimal	There is an emphasis on the theological message of the historical books, but not as directly tied to the Westminster Standards
Sanctification	Demonstrates a love for the Triune God that aids the student's sanctification.	Minimal	Learning about our relationship to God, especially in the Psalms, aids sanctification
Desire for Worldview	Burning desire to conform all of life to the Word of God.	None
Winsomely Reformed	Embraces a winsomely Reformed ethos. (Includes an appropriate ecumenical spirit with other Christians, especially Evangelicals; a concern to present the Gospel in a God-honoring manner to non-Christians; and a truth-in-love attitude in disagreements.)	None
Teach	Ability to teach the meaning of Scripture to both heart and mind with clarity and enthusiasm.	Moderate	We talk about how to preach and teach the poetical books
Church/World	Ability to interact within a denominational context, within the broader worldwide church, and with significant public issues.	None
MAR Specific SLO	An ability to integrate such knowledge and understanding into one's own calling in society	None
