

The State of Tennessee requires Reformed Theological Seminary to inform you that credits earned at RTS may transfer to another educational institution. Credits earned at another educational institution may or may not be accepted by RTS. You should obtain confirmation that RTS will accept credits you have earned at another institution before you execute an enrollment agreement. You should also contact any educational institutions that you may want to transfer credits earned at RTS to determine if such institutions will accept credits earned at RTS prior to executing an enrollment agreement with RTS. The ability to transfer credits from RTS to other educational institutions may be very limited. Your credits may or may not transfer and you may have to repeat courses previously taken at RTS if you enroll at another educational institution. You should never assume that credits will transfer to or from any educational institution. It is highly recommended and you are highly advised to make certain that you know the transfer of credit policy of RTS and other educational institutions you may in the future want to transfer the credits earned at RTS before you execute an enrollment agreement.

By my signature below I understand the policy set forth in the paragraph above.
