INVITATION

This catalog describes programs available at seven degree-granting campuses: Atlanta, Georgia; Boca Raton & Orlando, Florida; Charlotte, North Carolina; Jackson, Mississippi; Washington DC; and the Virtual Campus.

Come visit Reformed Theological Seminary as a prospective student or as one who is interested in theological education. Come see the campus, attend classes, and meet some of the students and faculty members.

It will be a privilege to include your name with other friends and supporters who receive the RTS Reformed Quarterly, which will keep you up to date on news from the seminary. If you wish to have a complimentary subscription or need additional information, call the Admissions Office:

FOUNDING

In June 1963, five ministers met in a Memphis hotel room to pray about the need to establish a new seminary. At that time, no seminary in the southeastern United States was committed both to Reformed theology and to the Bible as God’s inerrant Word, the final authority for faith and life. When the meeting ended, the seed that would become Reformed Theological Seminary had been planted.

In the fall of 1966, RTS opened its doors for resident studies in Jackson, Mississippi. On September 6, Dr. C. Darby Fulton, former executive secretary of the Board of World Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, delivered an address entitled “The Relevancy of the Gospel” at the first convocation.

After operating for more than twenty years in Jackson, it became apparent that opportunities for theological education were nowhere more evident than in Orlando, Florida. In the fall of 1989, Reformed Theological Seminary opened the Orlando campus. A third campus was begun in Charlotte, North Carolina, with a full schedule being first offered in the fall of 1993. In 1993, RTS began offering courses in the greater Washington DC area. In 1996, an extension was begun in the Atlanta area. In 1999, RTS began offering courses through the Virtual Campus. In 2006, the Boca Raton, Florida extension received accreditation approval to be a degree-granting campus.

Therefore, RTS has seven degree-granting campuses: three main campuses, Jackson, Mississippi, Orlando, Florida, and Charlotte, North Carolina; three extension campuses, Washington DC, Atlanta, Georgia, and Boca Raton, Florida; and the Virtual campus.

DISTINCTIVE FEATURES

RTS was established to provide serious, realistic training for ministry so that people would be won to Christ and built up in the faith, resulting in healthy, growing churches and a perceptive application of the Bible to all facets of life.

Since the Bible is the Word of God, it is the basis for the total curriculum. Students are equipped with the necessary skills to understand and teach the Scriptures, developing, above all, a burning desire to know and do the will of God as revealed in the Old and New Testaments, for the essence of Reformed theology is a willingness constantly to conform all of life to the Word of God.

The seminary recognizes that there are evangelical and Reformed brothers and sisters in Christ within various denominations and Christian organizations who hold views concerning doctrine, missions, and evangelism different from its own distinctives. While committed to fulfilling its purpose and distinctives in these areas, the seminary resolves to maintain openness to and appreciation for Christians in differing denominations and organizations with a loving and winsome spirit, thus contributing to the purity and the unity of the Christian community and witness.

Reformed Theological Seminary is free from denominational control. All who are associated with it, however, are individually under the jurisdiction of the various church courts of the denominations of which they are members.

To ensure that the original purpose and doctrinal distinctives of the seminary are maintained, each member of the board of trustees, faculty, and ministerial advisors is required initially and annually to subscribe to the following Statement of Belief and Covenant as set forth in the seminary’s bylaws:

Believing that there is but one only, the living and true God, and that there are three persons in the Godhead, the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost; and that these three are one and the same in substance, equal in power and glory, and with solemn awareness of accountability to Him in all that we feel, think, say and do, the undersigned engages in and subscribes to this declaration:

1. All Scripture is self-attesting and, being truth, requires the human mind wholeheartedly to subject itself in all its activities to the authority of Scripture complete as the Word of God, standing written in the sixty-six books of the Holy Bible, all therein being verbally inspired by Almighty God and therefore without error.
2. Reformed theology as set forth in the Westminster Confession of Faith and the Larger and Shorter Catechisms as accepted by the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America as its standard of doctrine at its first General Assembly in 1789 is the system of doctrine taught in Scripture; and, therefore, it is to be learned, taught and proclaimed for the edification and government of Christian people, for the propagation of the faith and for the evangelization of the world by the power of the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ.

3. And I do solemnly promise and engage not to inculcate, sanction, teach or insinuate anything that appears to me to contradict or contravene, either directly or implicitly, any element of that system of doctrine.

4. NOW THEREFORE, the undersigned in the presence of God, states and signifies that he consents, agrees, and binds himself to all of the foregoing without any reservation whatsoever, and that he further obligates himself immediately to notify in writing the trustees should a change of any kind take place in his belief and feeling not in accord with this statement. Amen.

ACCREDITATION

Reformed Theological Seminary is accredited to award the MAR, MACE, MAMiss, MA/MFTC, MAC, MATS, MABS, MACT, M.Div., Th.M., D.Min., and Ph.D. by:

Exemption from licensure is not based upon any assessment of program quality under established licensing standards.

The State Council of Higher Education for Virginia has awarded Reformed Theological Seminary’s McLean, VA campus a Certificate to Operate an Institution of Higher Education authorizing the Seminary to offer degrees, courses for degree credit, or programs of study leading to a degree, in the Commonwealth of Virginia. The State Council of Higher Education for Virginia is the Commonwealth’s coordinating body for higher education and is located at 101 North Fourteenth Street, Richmond, VA 23219. The Council’s phone number is (804) 225-2600.

PURPOSE

The purpose of RTS is to serve the church in all branches of evangelical Christianity, especially the Presbyterian and Reformed family, by preparing its leaders, with a priority on pastors, and including missionaries, educators, counselors, and others through a program of theological education on the graduate level, based upon the authority of the inerrant Word of God, the sixty-six books of the Bible, and committed to the Reformed faith as set forth in the Westminster Confession of Faith.
and the Larger and Shorter Catechisms as accepted by the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America as its standard of doctrine at its first General Assembly in 1789. This program shall be characterized by biblical fidelity, confessional integrity, and academic excellence, and committed to the promotion of the spiritual growth of the students. The breadth of this ministry will include multiple campuses and extensions as led by the Lord.

MISSION

The mission of Reformed Theological Seminary is to serve the Church by preparing its leaders, through a program of graduate theological education, based upon the authority of the inerrant Word of God, and committed to the Reformed Faith.

RTS VISION STATEMENT

Reformed Theological Seminary exists to glorify the Triune God and to serve His Church in all branches of evangelical Christianity, especially Presbyterian and Reformed churches, by providing Reformed graduate theological education that is globally accessible. RTS equips its students for ministry, primarily through pastoral training, to be servant leaders marked by “A Mind for Truth, A Heart for God.”

LOCATIONS

RTS is a multi-campus seminary, committed to making a variety of theological and biblical study and ministry preparation programs available to you through the most accessible and flexible ways possible. We currently offer degrees at the following campus locations and hope to establish in the future additional residence and distance programs at new locations to help you earn your degree.

Jackson, Mississippi

The original campus of RTS is located in a residential section of Jackson, the state capital of Mississippi.

You will enjoy many advantages in Jackson that often are found only in larger cities. With a metropolitan area population of nearly 425,000, Jackson’s cultural resources are bolstered by many opportunities for higher education. Close by are Belhaven College, Millsaps College, Mississippi College, Tougaloo College, Jackson State University, and the University of Mississippi Medical Center.

Jackson has much to offer culturally with its beautiful Arts Center and the Mississippi Symphony Orchestra, Mississippi Opera, Davis Planetarium, and Zoological Park. Resident theater, symphony, and ballet companies provide fine quality entertainment. The city’s football stadium, coliseum, and baseball park are sites of major sporting events.

Shopping centers, restaurants, and recreation facilities abound. Nearby national parks and recreational areas such as the Ross Barnett Reservoir provide boating, water skiing, and fishing for your leisure enjoyment. Gulf coast beaches, the city of New Orleans, and the city of Memphis are only a three-hour drive from Jackson.

Orlando, Florida

Centrally located within the nation’s fourth largest state, the Orlando campus is within a two-hour drive for over eight million people. Orlando’s cosmopolitan character, family orientation, and unparalleled growth make it a stimulating environment rich with opportunities.

Each year, 1.5 million full-time residents and more than 40 million visitors enjoy the diverse activities offered in the Orlando area. Nearby beaches, lakes, and state and national parks provide boating, water skiing, camping, and fishing for leisure enjoyment. World-class attractions include Sea World, MGM Studios, Universal Studios, Epcot Center, Disney’s Animal Kingdom, and the Magic Kingdom at Walt Disney World. The Orlando Science Center, the Southern Ballet Company and the Orlando Opera create a rich cultural environment.

Educational opportunities abound, with many of the state’s top public, private, and Christian schools located here. This booming population center creates available employment in a wide variety of fields. With a number of advantages found only in larger cities, Orlando is a unique place to live and study.

Charlotte, North Carolina
The “Queen City,” Charlotte, North Carolina, provides an ideal setting for this campus of Reformed Theological Seminary. Charlotte is a city of churches. It enjoys an unparalleled heritage of Christian life and community and is the center of Reformed heritage for the Southern U.S.

A number of mission organizations have their headquarters in Charlotte, including SIM, JAARS (SIL/Wycliffe), and the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association. Today, more than three thousand churches minister to an ever-expanding population of God’s people within an hour’s drive of Charlotte. The rich diversity of area churches and mission organizations provides vital opportunities for seminarians seeking practical experience.

The city of Charlotte is just two hours from the mountains and three and one-half hours from the beach. Strategically located on the border between North and South Carolina, the Charlotte metro area holds over 1.5 million people and is the hub of commerce for the Piedmont region. It is recognized among the top ten places to live in the U.S. and is the nation’s second largest banking center. Home to professional sports, Fortune 500 companies, and academic and research institutions, Charlotte still holds proudly to its small-town flavor.

Atlanta, Georgia
Rooted in history and stretching toward the future, the region’s nearly 5 million residents make Atlanta the undisputed capital of today’s South.

Atlanta is the home of great families, churches, universities, and major corporations—and of a thriving extension campus of Reformed Theological Seminary! The lovely Buckhead setting of RTS Atlanta in the Church of the Apostles affords a convenient and central location for most of our classes. Our highly regarded courses are presented also in other prominent locations throughout the area.

The Atlanta extension of RTS is ideal for students who insist on relevant, accredited courses that are rooted in the Word of God. With many of our courses offered on nights and weekends, students join others whose work schedules necessitate a flexible approach to graduate theological education. The Atlanta extension offers a wide range of courses and received ATS accreditation in 2003 to offer the Master of Arts in Religion.

Boca Raton, Florida
Through a unique church-based training program, students have the opportunity to experience excellent theological, biblical, and historical studies with RTS resident faculty, in tandem with church planting and leadership training provided by successful church leaders. Students learn by participating in both classroom instruction and church ministry experiences in each semester of their program.

Varieties of courses are taught throughout the year by resident faculty from the various RTS campuses, as well as by area adjunct faculty and other visiting scholars. The Boca Raton extension received ATS accreditation in 2006 to offer the Master of Arts in Religion.

Virtual Campus, Distance Education
The RTS Virtual Campus is more a mode of communication than a physical presence. Millions of people now do business, see entertainment, and gain instruction through the Web. RTS Virtual provides the local church with the opportunity for graduate-level theological education, including the Master of Arts in Religion, of which ninety percent may be obtained by distance.

Course delivery methods include audio tape and web-based learning. Both asynchronous and synchronous learning opportunities are available. Instruction includes local mentoring from the student’s church to ensure biblical discipleship with personal warmth and accountability. The physical location of RTS Virtual is on the RTS campus in Charlotte, North Carolina.

CAMPUS FACILITIES

The Jackson campus includes one hundred acres graced by nineteen major buildings with apartments for married students and accommodations for single students. The seminary library has one of the finest theological collections in the region. Tennis courts and a gymnasium on campus provide recreational facilities for students and their families. In addition to student apartments on campus, the seminary also owns over seventy-five townhouses near the campus. The spacious townhouses include fireplaces, washers, and dryers. A swimming pool is available for use by residents.

The Orlando campus opened new state-of-the-art campus facilities in 1999 on sixty-five acres of land in suburban Oviedo. Five miles north of the University of Central Florida, the Orlando campus is equipped with classrooms, a library, a theological bookstore, and student study and lounge facilities. The seminary library offers students 150,000 volumes in print and microform; moreover, students have access to the Nicole Collection, containing over 20,000 primary and secondary sources on historical, theological, and biblical studies. The surrounding community provides attractive housing opportunities, which include garden apartments, town houses, and condominiums.

The Charlotte campus is ideally located in the heart of southeast Charlotte, with excellent access to the airport, the interstate system, and the bulk of the residential areas of Charlotte. The campus is composed of five buildings with over 50,000 square feet of space, providing ample classrooms, library, and office areas. The library includes over 40,000 volumes on site and full access by computer to the libraries on the other RTS campuses. The beautiful, tree-shaded setting is excellently suited for a campus, offering abundant parking and plenty of open space to provide a campus atmosphere. Many affordable and attractive apartment complexes are available in the area. Charlotte’s bustling economy provides abundant employment opportunities.

RTS Washington DC classes meet at McLean Presbyterian Church in McLean, Virginia. New offices are located in Fairfax, Virginia. Students enjoy library borrowing privileges from several local university libraries in addition to the RTS interlibrary loan system.

The Atlanta extension uses the facilities of The Church of the Apostles in Atlanta, Georgia. Students enjoy library privileges at several local libraries, including Emory University, and through the RTS interlibrary loan system.

The Boca Raton extension offers classes and has its offices at the Spanish River Presbyterian Church on Yamato Road. We invite you to visit us, sit in on a class, and take a tour of our campus facilities. Leadership training courses involve churches throughout the South Florida community.

In addition to the excellent facilities on each campus, RTS provides the opportunity for academic interchange among the campuses.

THE STUDENT FELLOWSHIP

Every student enrolled in the seminary is a member of the RTS Student Fellowship. The student activity fee, paid each semester, funds a variety of student activities throughout the year. The Student Cabinet, consisting of officers and representatives from the student population, conducts various campus activities and conferences sponsored by the fellowship.
THE SOCIETY OF MISSIONARY INQUIRY

At RTS Jackson, the Society of Missionary Inquiry (SMI) is committed to bringing about a balanced integration of spiritual growth, evangelism, and biblical missions in the lives of men and women training for ministry. A cabinet chosen from the student body handles the regular business and special activities sponsored by SMI. All members of the student body are included as members of the Society of Missionary Inquiry.

The overall purpose of SMI is to help RTS students, their families, faculty, and staff focus on global missions and God’s concern for non-Christians. Special seminars, prayer meetings, chapel services, and other activities are sponsored by SMI. An annual missions or spiritual life conference is held each fall semester.

CHAPEL

Chapel services are conducted on different days of the week each semester under the direction of the faculty and the student affairs office to provide spiritual enrichment for the seminary community. Chapel is an integral part of seminary life and students are encouraged to attend for their own spiritual development and nurture. Prayer groups also meet weekly.

WOMEN IN MINISTRY

This uniquely designed program focuses on the distinctive needs of women students and seminary wives. The program addresses women’s needs through fellowship, ministry training, prayer, and intensive Bible study, while endeavoring to promote joy and confidence in their unique calling to serve Christ.

Faculty wives and other women in the seminary community give direction to this program with the assistance of elected students and student wives. A yearly retreat designed for fellowship, inspiration, and training provides an indispensable experience.

In addition to training and fellowship opportunities, the seminary offers academic courses for audit to all spouses of students free of charge. Spouses of full-time students may also enroll in courses for credit free of charge.

HOUSING

The seminary does not assume responsibility for providing room and board for students. Affordable housing is available in close proximity to each campus. Full-time students on the Jackson campus may rent seminary-owned apartments and condominiums. Housing application forms are available from the Dean of Students Office in Jackson. Information on housing is available from Admissions in Orlando and Charlotte.

MEDICAL INSURANCE

All full-time students are required to have adequate major medical insurance. Proof of medical insurance is required at registration. International students receiving financial aid are required to have major medical insurance coverage for all dependents listed on form I-20.

Information on a student major medical insurance plan is available through student affairs office or the Seminary Business Office.

PLACEMENT

Placement of graduates is a high priority at RTS. The student affairs office and faculty/staff, both formally and informally, aid students for job placement. Churches, denominations, and parachurch organizations that are seeking pastors, assistant pastors, youth ministers, Christian education directors, counselors, and graduates for other ministry and leadership positions regularly contact the seminary. RTS provides a web-based placement tool for ministries to post open positions.
DEGREE PROGRAMS
2007 – 2009

ATLANTA
CHARLOTTE
JACKSON
WASHINGTON DC
VIRTUAL

A mind for truth. A heart for God.
DESIGN OF THE CURRICULUM

The M.Div. curriculum is designed to offer training for the pastoral ministry. Concentrated study in three basic areas – Bible, systematic theology, and practical theology – characterizes this three-year program. In addition to training for pastoral ministry, the curriculum is designed to aid in the student’s sanctification.

Bible courses include the basic structure and content of each book of the Bible along with such details concerning major characters, dates, and places as are necessary. Principles of hermeneutics and exegesis, using the original languages as well as the English Bible, are also included. Students learn to apply Scripture to contemporary circumstances.

Building upon and integrated with a biblical foundation, theology is a major area of concentration. The purpose of this study is to provide the theological and historical foundations, along with current cultural contexts, to understand and live the Christian faith.

The practical theology courses are designed to enable students to develop competence in ministry including preaching, worship, leadership, and individual shepherding. A variety of experiences and instructors enable students to develop methods and styles of ministry suited to their individual gifts. The number of class hours per week may exceed the number of semester hours of credit. Some of the preaching and pastoral course requirements may be adjusted for women and other non-ministerial candidates so as to provide the appropriate preparation and setting for their needs. Women and other non-ministerial candidates will substitute additional elective course hours for the Preaching Labs.

A student attains middler status upon completion of thirty-four semester hours and senior status upon completion of sixty-eight semester hours. The curriculum is designed to be completed in three years, but many students choose to complete the curriculum in four or more years.

M.Div. DEGREE EMPHASIS TRACKS

The M.Div. curriculum offers the student the option of selecting an area of emphasis. This emphasis will be listed on the student’s transcript but will not be designated on the student’s diploma. Included in this catalog are schedules of courses for the M.Div. degree that further define the various emphases and the requirements for each.

Jackson

Students taking the M.Div. degree may emphasize in one of four areas: Pastoral ministry, Christian education/youth ministry, counseling, and intercultural-studies/missions. All four programs require a total of 106 semester hours.

Orlando

Students enrolled in the 106-hour M.Div. curriculum may select from areas of emphasis including biblical studies, church planting/missions, counseling, or theological studies.

Charlotte

Within the 106-hour M.Div. curriculum, a student has the opportunity to take elective courses in systematic theology, biblical studies, and practical theology.
PRE-SEMINARY PREPARATION

A student’s course of study prior to entering a theological seminary should provide the cultural and intellectual foundations essential to an effective theological education. A broad liberal arts education is recommended as the best preparation for the M.Div. degree. Since some courses in the Division of Biblical Studies are based on the original languages of Scripture, the acquisition of Greek at the earliest possible opportunity is highly advisable. In addition, knowledge of philosophy, history, and modern languages such as French and German is recommended. A pre-seminary reading list is available at the RTS web page (www.rts.edu).

FIELD EDUCATION

Field education is that area of theological education in which the theory of the classroom is tested and applied in the life and ministry of the church. The purpose of field education is to provide opportunities for M.Div. students to exercise and improve their gifts and skills and to equip them with diversified backgrounds of firsthand experience in the service to which God has called them.

Prior to or concurrent with the beginning of the field experience, students are required to take (PT502) Introduction to Ministry (Jackson) or (ST502) Introduction to Pastoral and Theological Studies (Orlando) or (PT536) Field Education Internship (Charlotte). At the start of their field work, students should register with the Field Education Office, at which time a file of field work for each student will be established. Field work not properly registered with the Field Education Office cannot be counted toward the field education requirement.

The M.Div. degree requires four hundred hours of field education experience. Upon completion of this requirement, an evaluation report is to be submitted to the Director of Field Education by a field supervisor (usually a pastor, elder, or evaluation committee). Following submission of this report, the student may register for PT534 Field Education Seminar. Completion of this seminar marks the completion of the field education requirement.

The field experience credit may be earned as a summer student assistant to a pastor, a student supply in a vacant pulpit, a pastoral internship of nine to fifteen months, a missionary internship, a campus ministry internship, work with a parachurch organization, ministry in a national park, youth ministry, evangelistic ministry in a local church, nursing home chaplaincy, hospital chaplaincy, jail ministry, teaching home Bible classes, or other similar ministries.

Students at RTS Orlando may fulfill the field education requirement and earn six elective credit hours by completing one unit of Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE) at Florida Hospital. The student may fulfill the requirement for an M.Div. emphasis in Pastoral Care by combining one unit of CPE with one of the following courses: Counseling Special Populations (2CO508) or Career and Lifestyle Development (2C0609). Experience in the CPE program that does not meet the requirement for a full unit of CPE may be used to fulfill an appropriate percentage of the required four hundred hours of field education. Prerequisites include completion of 2ST502 and permission of the Director of Field Education.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

1. M.Div. students normally spend three years in residence in order to complete the required curriculum for the M.Div. degree, including a total of at least 106 semester hours with a C (2.0) average on all work taken.

2. The seminary must have on file official transcripts showing that the student holds the B.A. degree or its equivalent.

3. The student must complete the field education requirements to the satisfaction of the faculty.

4. The conduct and attitude of the student must be satisfactory according to the norms of Scripture and the Westminster Standards.
5. The student must pass the English Bible and Westminster Shorter Catechism examinations.

6. The student must clear all financial obligations to the seminary and give assurance that all open accounts in the community and elsewhere have been satisfied.

All students expecting to graduate must make formal application for graduation to the faculty through the registrar at the time of registration for their final semester of academic work. The graduation fee will be paid at this time. Ordinarily, degrees will be awarded at the conclusion of the spring semester, but may be granted in December.

MEANING OF THE DEGREE

A degree from Reformed Theological Seminary indicates that the graduate has completed the requirements for the course of study. Although the M.Div. degree meets the standard educational requirements for ordination in most denominations, the degree does not certify that the graduate necessarily possesses all the biblical qualifications requisite for the ministry or adheres to the Reformed faith. Graduation from Reformed Theological Seminary with either the M.Div. degree or diploma should not in itself be construed as a recommendation for the ministry.

Ecclesiastical bodies and pulpit committees are responsible for applying their own requirements for ordination to determine the doctrinal soundness, suitability, and readiness for ministry of a particular graduate.

M.DIV. DIPLOMA WITHOUT THE DEGREE

Students without a baccalaureate degree may apply for admission to the M.Div. Diploma program. These students must possess the knowledge, academic skill, and ability generally associated with persons who hold the baccalaureate degree. Admission will be restricted to persons with life experience that has prepared them for theological study at the graduate level.

To complete the M.Div. Diploma program, the student does not have to take Greek or Hebrew courses. Whether taking the languages or not, the student must complete 106 credit hours for the M.Div. diploma.

Students may transfer from the M.Div. Diploma program to the M.Div. Degree program. In order to qualify for this transfer, a student must maintain a minimum GPA of 3.0 for the first 36 hours of credit work. When petition is made to transfer from the M.Div. Diploma program and into the M.Div. Degree program, the student must be in good standing.

A 3.0 GPA does not need to be maintained after transferring into the M.Div. Degree program in order to maintain the student’s M.Div. Degree status (although normal academic probation policies will apply to M.Div. Diploma and M.Div. Degree students at all times).

M.DIV./M.A. DUAL DEGREES

A student may complete the M.A. in Biblical Studies, the M.A. in Christian Education, the M.A. in Christian Thought, the M.A. in Marriage and Family Therapy, the M.A. in Missions, the M.A. in Religion, or the M.A. in Theological Studies plus the M.Div. degree program in four years with 138 semester hours. A student may complete the M.A. in Counseling plus the M.Div. degree program with a total of 151 semester hours.

For more information about our dual M.A. degrees, see page 23.

In addition to the above, M.Div. students are required to pass the English Bible Exam in order to graduate.

*In order to register for 1PT508 Communication I, students must first pass the test on Westminster Shorter Catechism questions 1-53. In order to register for 1PT522 Communication II, students must first pass the test on Westminster Shorter Catechism questions 54-107.

Students are encouraged to complete the 400-hour Field Education requirement before enrolling for this seminar. A Field Education Registration Form must be submitted before Field Education can begin.

Greek I (4 hours) and Greek II (2 hours) are offered only during the summer. Students who have not studied Greek should plan on taking Greek I and Greek II the summer prior to enrollment. Greek I typically starts at the beginning of July.

Women and other non-ministerial candidates will substitute additional elective course hours for the Preaching Labs.

To avoid future scheduling conflicts, students not taking a given Greek or Hebrew course in their first year should replace the Greek or Hebrew course with the course specified below:

1st year course dropped and replaced with:

Fall 1NT506 Greek Exegesis replaced with 1CES14 Educational Ministry of the Church, 1OT502 Introduction to Hebrew replaced with 1HT502 The History of Christianity I

Winter 1OT504 Intermediate Hebrew replaced with 1ST512 Systematic Theology II

Spring 1OT506 Hebrew Exegesis replaced with 1HT504 The History of Christianity II
Students who select an emphasis area in the Master of Divinity degree program should adjust to the core curriculum as indicated below. The emphases will be listed on the student’s transcript but will not be designated on the student’s diploma.

A four-year program for the M.Div. curriculum is available. Students interested in the four-year program should request a schedule from the Registrar.

*Pre-requisite is the successful completion of NT502 Greek I (3 hours), which is taught at the end of the summer session.

Women and other non-ministerial candidates will substitute additional elective course hours for the Preaching Labs.

For the most updated version of the curriculum, see the RTS web page (www.rts.edu).

SUMMER/WINTER M.DIV. TRACK

RTS Orlando offers intensive courses in the summers and winters that increase the options that students have for completing the M.Div. degree. Core courses for the M.Div. are offered over a 6-year rotation while practical theology courses are offered over a 4-year rotation. Besides the academic courses, summer terms also include social events, chapel services and other co-curricular experiences. Contact the Admissions office for further details on this option.
Students should use elective hours in the core curriculum as indicated for each emphasis area. The emphases will be listed on the student's transcript but will not be designated on the student’s diploma.

M.Div. Biblical Studies

Add the following:
Eight hours of biblical studies electives, excluding ON701

M.Div. Theological Studies

Add the following:
Eight hours of theological or historical studies electives

M.Div. Church Planting/Missions

Add the following courses:
- MS516 Church Growth and Renewal
- MS702 Church Planting and Development
  - Two elective hours in church planting or missions
  - approved by the Academic Dean

M.Div. Pastoral Care

Add the following courses:
- PSY510 Social & Cultural Issues in Counseling or
- PSY516 Career & Lifestyle Development
- PT710 Clinical Pastoral Ed in conjunction with CPE
  - completed at Florida Hospital

M.Div. Counseling

Add the following courses:
- PSY519 Psychopathology
- PSY573 Sexuality & Sex Therapy
- PSY560 Practice of Counseling and Psychotherapy
The curriculum consists of 106 semester hours. Those who have studied Greek may take a proficiency examination to determine if they may be exempted from portions of the Greek requirement. The language courses and the preaching (communication) courses must be taken in sequence and, therefore, should be initiated early in the program.

*Pre-requisite is the successful completion of NT502 Greek I (3 hours), which is taught at the end of the summer session.

Women and other non-ministerial candidates will substitute additional elective course hours for the Preaching Labs.

For the most updated version of the curriculum, see the RTS web page (www.rts.edu).
The Master of Arts program provides concentrated study in a special field or discipline upon the background of a general understanding of theology and biblical studies. Candidates for this degree must complete their degree requirements with an overall C (2.0) average. For students wishing to take practical theology courses as electives toward an M.A. degree, please note that some of the preaching and pastoral course requirements may be adjusted for women and other non-ministerial candidates so as to provide the appropriate preparation and setting for their needs.

M.A. in Biblical or Theological Studies

This 66 semester hour degree program integrates biblical, historical, and theological studies with cultural and social concerns. It is designed to strengthen the religious basis for one's life and work whether in a secular career or a church staff position. Greek and Hebrew are optional. The English Bible exam is required.

For those who have already earned a Ph.D., a special M.A. in Biblical or Theological Studies is available. This emphasis is designed to provide integration, from a Christian perspective, with expressions of contemporary society in the arts, the sciences, and popular culture. In this program, up to 30 hours of advanced standing may be granted.

M.A. in Christian Education

This 66 semester hour degree program seeks to develop a wide range of skills for providing leadership in the educational ministry of the church. This program emphasizes the integration of biblical, theological, and historical study with educational foundations, together with the acquisition of skills in teaching and leadership.

An English Bible examination similar to that required for the M.Div. degree and field education are both required. Individuals interested in a special ministry to junior high, senior high, and college age students may emphasize youth ministry.

M.A. in Christian Thought

This 66 semester hour degree program concentrates on the major issues relating to the human condition from historical, philosophical, and theological perspectives. It is designed to help students develop a world and life view founded upon biblical principles of Reformed theology.

M.A. in Counseling

This program is a 76 semester hour program designed for the person who wishes to work in the specialized field of counseling and who desires an orientation that integrates Christian theology with counseling theory and practice. Biblical and theological studies are integrated with formal, professional education and technical training.

Students enrolled in this two-year (21-month) program must enroll full time. Entrance is granted for the fall semester only. Applications must be received by the Admissions Office by February 1 prior to the fall semester of desired enrollment. A non-refundable deposit of $200 must be submitted upon acceptance. For detailed information regarding admission to the MAC program, please visit the RTS website.

All students in this degree program are examined on biblical knowledge. Those who do not pass the exam must enroll in Bible Survey (2ON701) or, with permission of the Academic Dean, in a biblical studies elective.
M.A. in Marriage and Family Therapy and Counseling

This 67 semester hour degree program is designed for the person who wishes to work in this specialized field of counseling and who desires an orientation that integrates Christian theology with the theory and practice of family therapy. Biblical and theological studies are integrated with formal, professional education and technical training. Theoretical knowledge is also integrated with applied skills through supervised clinical practice. This is a two-year (24-month) program. Continuance in the MFT & Counseling program is contingent upon the student’s intra and interpersonal skills and/or functioning.

In addition to the general admission requirements given in this catalog, applicants for the Marriage and Family Therapy program must submit a GRE General Test score and must make a non-refundable deposit of $200 upon acceptance. Applications for the Marriage and Family Therapy program should be received by February 1 for those who wish to enroll in the fall semester.

To graduate, MFT & Counseling students must have clinical experience that includes:

1. A minimum of twelve consecutive months of clinical work;

2. At least 500 hours of face-to-face clinical experience, of which at least 250 hours are with two or more clients; and

3. A total of 100 hours of clinical supervision, of which at least 50 are in groups of no more than two and the remainder in groups of no more than six persons. (All MFT and Counseling supervision is based on direct observation, videotape, or audiotape.)

Graduates will have completed the requirements for associate membership in the American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy.

Because this program is designed to meet the needs of those serving in the social and cultural setting of North America, international students are not ordinarily admitted.

M.A. in Missions (Intercultural-Studies)

This 66 semester hour degree program is designed to equip both North American and foreign nationals for more effective communication of the gospel and for ministry in cross-cultural settings. Approximately one-half of the required courses are in missions with an emphasis on cross-cultural ministries. The remaining portion of the curriculum consists of biblical, theological, and historical studies.

M.A. in Biblical Studies/M.A. in TESOL

This program is offered in conjunction with the University of Central Florida. Students may complete both degrees in two academic years including summers of full-time study. The program provides students with the technical skills for teaching English to speakers of other languages as well as a broad understanding of biblical and theological material. Admission and graduation requirements of both Reformed Theological Seminary and the University of Central Florida must be met. Contact RTS Orlando for more information.
M.A. in Religion
This 60 semester hour degree program is a versatile degree, designed for Christians who desire to bring biblical and theological reflection to bear on a wide spectrum of societal issues in their chosen vocations and avocations. The MAR program shares courses with other RTS masters’ degree programs, and is offered at the Atlanta campus, the Washington DC campus, the Boca Raton campus, and the Virtual campus.

M.A. DUAL DEGREES
Students taking the MA/MFTC program may earn the MABS with one additional year of study (106 hours required for the dual program).

For more information about our dual M.Div./M.A. degrees, see page 15.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS
Students must complete the M.A. curriculum and fulfill other requirements stated above for graduation. Additionally, the seminary must have on file an official transcript of the student’s bachelor’s degree or its equivalent, and the Accounting Office must be able to report that all financial obligations to the seminary have been paid.
The M.A. curriculum consists of 66 semester hours including the core curriculum plus concentrated study in an area of specialization.

Note: Students may take Systematic Theology and/or their biblical studies elective(s) in either year. They are urged to take them in the recommended order.
The cycled courses are offered in alternate years. Students should take the courses when they are offered.
The faculty advisor must approve selection of the Biblical Studies Elective courses.
For the most updated version of the curriculum, see the RTS web page (www.rts.edu).
The M.A. curriculum consists of 66 semester hours including the core curriculum plus concentrated study in an area of specialization.

PURPOSES OF THE PROGRAM

The Master of Theology degree program (Th.M.) is designed for those who hold the M.Div. degree and wish to engage in advanced theological studies. In this program, students concentrate in one area of emphasis with a goal of attaining a high level of competency in that discipline. The area of emphasis in Jackson is Biblical Theology, and in Orlando, Reformation Studies. Research and writing skills, which are important to this program, must be demonstrated by writing a thesis. The Jackson Th.M. courses are offered in a traditional format. The Orlando Th.M. courses are offered in a modular format.

DESIGN OF THE CURRICULUM

Jackson

The Th.M. in Biblical Studies consists of 24 semester hours. The students are required to take 18 hours of Th.M. level courses. In addition, students are required to register for six semester hours of thesis work and write a thesis on an approved topic.

A maximum of six semester hours transfer credit may be used as credit towards this degree.

Orlando

The Th.M. in Reformation Studies consists of 30 semester hours. The students are required to take eight 3-semester-hour seminars: three are required core courses—Pre-Reformation, Reformation, and Post-Reformation—and the remaining five seminars are electives. In addition, students are required to complete six semester hours of thesis work: a 20,000-word thesis on an approved topic.

The Th.M. in Reformation Studies follows a modular format. Twice a year (January and June) two 1-week seminars are offered successively at the Orlando campus—ordinarily one core course and one elective.

These 5-day classroom sessions include lectures, tutorials, and student presentations. Assigned reading is to be completed before the seminars.

Each Th.M. seminar is followed by ten weeks of electronic communication between the professor and student as well as regular email interaction among students. At the end of the ten weeks a formal research paper is presented to the professor for evaluation.

Three core courses . . . 9 hours
Pre-Reformation
Reformation
Post-Reformation

Five electives . . . . 15 hours

Th.M. Thesis . . . . . . . . 6 hours

30 hours

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Those admitted to the Master of Theology degree program are required to have:

1. A Master of Divinity degree from an approved seminary.

2. A 3.0 grade point average for all previous graduate theological studies.

3. Knowledge of Hebrew and Greek (Jackson only).

4. The endorsement of the department in which the Th.M. degree is to be taken.

Applicants holding M.Div. degrees who wish to enroll in the Th.M. degree program, but who do not demonstrate competence in biblical languages or theology, may take courses at RTS to make up such deficiencies, although the credit earned may not be used toward the Th.M. degree.
GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

To be awarded the Master of Theology degree, students must meet the following requirements:

1. The completion of the curriculum with a minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.0.
2. Introductory knowledge of Latin (Orlando only).
3. Comprehensive examinations, if required by the department.
4. The completion of a thesis on an approved subject and the successful oral defense of that thesis.
5. The completion of all requirements for the degree within five years.

DOCTOR OF MINISTRY

Jackson • Orlando • Charlotte • Atlanta • Washington DC • Boca Raton • Virtual Campus

PROGRAM DESIGN

The Doctor of Ministry program is available in Jackson, Orlando, and Charlotte. RTS also offers a variety of international Doctor of Ministry programs. Contact RTS Jackson for more information.

This program is designed to increase the effectiveness of pastors. It is built upon the biblical, theological, and professional foundations of the Master of Divinity degree. The program is designed to be flexible enough to meet individual needs while seeking to encourage increased competence in the classical and functional disciplines already studied in pre-professional courses required for ministry.

Requirements include the successful completion of 30 semester hours, which are offered in eight courses plus a doctoral project. The division of hours is indicated below:

Four core courses . . . . 12 hours
Theology of Ministry
Applied Theology
Leadership
Church Growth

Four electives . . . . 12 hours

Doctoral project . . . . 6 hours

30 hours

Each course or seminar has three components:

1. Assigned reading of approximately 2,000 pages to be completed before attending the classroom session.

2. A one-week (five days) session of classroom meetings for lectures, reflection, and evaluation.

3. A post-session integration paper growing out of the reading and class work. Written assignments for winter courses should be submitted to the D. Min. office no later than April 30, and assignments for summer courses should be submitted no later than October 31.

An on-campus classroom session is offered in the winter and in the summer each year with at least two courses available during each session. Students may take 12 hours of course work each year and complete all required work in two years. While it is possible to complete the course work and doctoral project within this two-year period, students ordinarily take four to five years to complete all the program requirements. A maximum of six years is allowed for completion of the program. Doctoral students are required to complete a minimum of one (three-hour) D. Min. course per year until the completion of their course work.

Students may pursue a general ministries track by choosing any four elective courses or a program emphasis track by focusing three of their four elective courses in one of several areas: intercultural studies/missions (Jackson); church development, which includes church planting, growth, and renewal (Jackson, Orlando); historical theology (Charlotte); Christian spirituality (Jackson, Orlando); or leadership development (Jackson, Orlando). These emphases will be listed on the student’s transcript but will not be designated on the student’s diploma.
DOCTOR OF MINISTRY

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Applicants must hold the Bachelor of Arts degree or its equivalent and the Master of Divinity degree or its equivalent. Applicants to the D.Min. program who have not completed the requisite Master of Divinity degree from an accredited seminary or graduate school may apply on the basis of having attained the academic equivalent of the M.Div. degree.

Master of Divinity equivalency shall be defined as having completed 92 semester hours of graduate study including 30 hours in historical/theological studies, 30 hours in biblical studies (including Greek or Hebrew) and 15 hours in practical theology courses. Other requirements for admission as mentioned above also apply to those seeking admission based on equivalency. Transcripts of prior graduate study will be evaluated by the D.Min. Committee, and applicants will be advised by letter of their standing. In the event that M.Div. equivalency has not been attained, a prescribed program of study leading to M.Div. equivalency will be recommended. This prescribed program may include courses at an RTS campus, distance education, or course work at another seminary.

A minimum grade point average of B (3.0) on work toward the Master of Divinity degree is ordinarily required. Greek or Hebrew is required.

All applicants must have been engaged in a recognized form of professional ministry for at least three years after receiving their Master of Divinity degree and are expected to reflect competence and growth in ministry as a result of their professional experience. They are expected to continue their practice of full-time ministry for the duration of their Doctor of Ministry program.

ADMISSION PROCEDURE

1. Upon receipt of the application form, required enclosures, and references, the Director of Admissions submits the applicant’s file to the faculty Doctor of Ministry Committee.

2. In some cases, the Doctor of Ministry Committee may require a written paper and/or a personal interview with the applicant. For those at a distance, the interview may be conducted by telephone.

3. The Doctor of Ministry Committee’s decision will be made known to the applicant by a letter from the Admissions director.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

All D.Min. students are required to complete 30 semester hours with a grade point average of 3.0 and with no grade below a C counting toward the degree. The 24 hours of course work must include four core courses and four elective courses. Also required is a six-semester-hour doctoral project (including doctoral writing seminars normally held after classroom sessions) on an approved subject giving evidence of the student’s ability to do independent research and integrate theology into practical ministry. A minimum of 12 hours (4 courses) plus the six-hour doctoral project must be taken on the RTS campus (Jackson, Orlando, or Charlotte) from which the candidate plans to do the doctoral project and graduate. The student may take the other 12 hours on any of our RTS campuses that provide D.Min. courses. Students may transfer a maximum of two 3-hour D.Min. courses from another ATS accredited seminary.

The completed doctoral project must be either (1) submitted no later than February 15 and defended successfully before a faculty committee no later than April 15 prior to the expected date of graduation in May, or (2) submitted no later than August 15 and defended successfully before a faculty committee no later than October 15 prior to the expected date of graduation in December.
The Doctor of Philosophy in Intercultural Studies (Ph.D./ICS) degree program provides a thorough grounding in theoretical knowledge, skills necessary for scholarly research, and training so that graduates will be prepared for leadership responsibilities in church and parachurch ministries and a wide range of academic institutions. The goals of the Ph.D./ICS include providing students with breadth and specialization in the fields of theory, research, and training for graduate teaching.

The Ph.D./ICS degree requires at least three academic years, including two years of approved course work in residence (classroom, seminar studies, guided research), followed by preparation of a dissertation that makes a significant contribution to the literature of the field. The student may be admitted to candidacy after two years of residence, successful completion of written and oral comprehensive examinations, and approval of a dissertation proposal. Students must register for at least two semester hours each academic year until completion of their program.

Admission Requirements

Applicants must have an educational and intercultural service background adequate for providing a foundation for personal and academic development. Specific objectives must be clear enough to provide a sense of purpose and direction from the beginning to the end of the doctoral program.

1. Prerequisite degrees:
   a. Applicants for the Ph.D. program are required to have an appropriate Master’s degree or its equivalent from an accredited institution that maintains academic standards similar to those of RTS. A Master of Divinity or a Master of Arts in Biblical Studies, Theology, or Missions is considered an appropriate degree. All applicants should have competence in at least one of the biblical languages (Hebrew or Greek) by the time of enrollment.
   b. A student may petition for advanced status based upon previous academic achievements or publications in the field of intercultural studies.

2. Selection for admission

   Selection for admission is based upon demonstrated academic ability. In addition to the general requirements for admission to Reformed Theological Seminary, applicants for the Ph.D. program must demonstrate the following:
   a. Academic achievement as measured by the MAT, the GRE, or another widely accepted standardized test used to evaluate graduate student admissions.
   b. Competence in at least one modern language and at least one language for field research. Applicants for whom English is not their mother tongue must attain a minimum score of 600 on the Test Of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL). On the computerized TOEFL, the equivalent score is 250.
   c. Evidence of potential for scholarship and original academic research at the doctoral level.
   d. Successful engagement in at least three years of vocational ministry or service directly relevant to intercultural studies after receiving the Master’s degree.
   e. Evidence of academic contribution in teaching and publication as documented in the applicant’s curriculum vitae.
   f. Academic aptitude, evidenced by the equivalent of a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.5 (on a 4.0 American scale) in previous graduate studies.
CANDIDACY REQUIREMENTS

1. Fulfillment of all requirements indicated as conditions of admission.

2. Completion of 48 semester hours of specified courses, plus successful completion of written and oral comprehensive examinations (three credit hours) and successful defense of a dissertation proposal (three credit hours).

3. Achievement of a minimum grade point average of 3.5.

4. Approval by the student’s Doctoral Dissertation Committee of a schedule for completion of the dissertation, which may not exceed three years.

5. Submission of an application for candidacy.

LANGUAGE REQUIREMENTS

All students are admitted on probationary status for their first year, during which time they must make adequate progress toward completion of their degree and must pass qualifying examinations in one of the biblical languages (Hebrew or Greek) and one modern foreign or field language. English may be considered the field language for students whose native tongue is a language other than English.

Proficiency in biblical Greek or Hebrew is required. Use of one or both biblical languages in the dissertation is expected where relevant to the dissertation research.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

All candidates for the Doctor of Philosophy in Intercultural Studies degree must meet the following requirements in order to graduate:

1. Recommendation by the faculty on the basis of academic attainment and evidence of Christian life and character during residence at RTS.

2. Successful completion of a minimum of 60 semester hours of approved academic work, including comprehensive examinations and dissertation, with a minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.5, and no grade below B applicable to the degree.

3. Successful completion of all courses required for the degree and of the specified number of full-time academic terms in residency.

4. Successful completion and defense of an approved dissertation (6 credit hours toward the 60 required for the degree) that exhibits the student’s ability to do competent research, to think critically, and to communicate effectively.

5. Completion of all course work for the degree within seven years from admission or five years after certification of candidacy, whichever comes first.

6. Settlement of all financial obligations to RTS.
VIRTUAL CAMPUS

RTS Virtual courses may be “transferred” toward the M.A. and M.Div. degree programs. An M.Div. student may normally only transfer a maximum of 36 RTS Virtual credits. However, in exceptional circumstances, the academic dean may approve a maximum of 52 RTS Virtual credits for an M.Div. student. An MAR student at RTS Atlanta, or RTS Boca Raton, or RTS Washington DC may only transfer a maximum of 29 RTS Virtual credits, and an MABS/MATS student may only transfer a maximum of 32 RTS Virtual credits.

ONE-YEAR CERTIFICATE IN BIBLE, THEOLOGY, CHRISTIAN EDUCATION, OR MISSIONS

The One-Year Certificate programs require 32 semester hours. Certificate programs are tailored to meet the needs of the candidates or the requirements of agencies with which they may be associated. Missionary candidates may meet the requirements of their sending agencies by taking a one-year program in biblical and intercultural studies. Campus ministry candidates may find courses in Bible and theology to be a helpful addition to training that may be given by their supporting agencies. Church Directors of Christian Education may find courses in Christian Education to be helpful. As with degree programs, a B.A. degree or its equivalent from an accredited school ordinarily is required.

Credits earned in the one-year certificate program may be applied toward the M.A. or M.Div. degree.

Certificate programs are available in Jackson, Orlando, Charlotte, Washington DC, Atlanta, and the Virtual Campus.

Purpose of Catalog

While every effort is made to insure the accuracy of the information in this catalog, Reformed Theological Seminary has the right to make changes at any time without prior notice. The catalog is for purposes of information and does not constitute the irrevocable terms of the contract between the Seminary and current or prospective students.

ADMISSIONS

The seminary has a non-discriminatory (race, sex, handicap) admissions policy. The school’s policy is to admit students to all the rights, privileges, programs, and activities at the school and to make no discrimination on the basis of race, sex, or handicap in the administration of educational policies, applications for admission, scholarship or loan programs, and extracurricular programs.

Applications for admission are reviewed for, and admission is granted into, specific programs of study offered by the seminary. Admission to one program of study does not imply admission is being granted to another program of the seminary.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS AND PROCEDURES

Applicants to programs of the seminary are evaluated on the basis of academic preparation and potential for ministry. Application for admission should be made at least three months prior to the date of enrollment. New students may enroll in the fall, winter, spring, or summer terms. The following materials should be addressed to the Director of Admissions:

1. A completed application form.
2. References from three individuals, including the applicant’s pastor.
3. The application fee.
5. A statement of reasons for wishing to pursue a particular degree.
6. Official transcripts from all previous academic work (a B.A. degree or its equivalent from an accredited school with a 2.6 GPA is ordinarily required).
7. A recent photograph.

Admission may be granted on the basis of these credentials alone, or the seminary may require a personal interview with the applicant, an entrance exam, the Graduate Record Examination, or a psychological or aptitude test.

Any admitted student who defers enrollment more than one year beyond the initial entrance date must submit another completed application form, the application fee, and other material that may be requested by the Director of Admissions.

Upon acceptance to RTS, a non-refundable deposit of $150.00 ($250.00 for the Marriage and Family Therapy and Counseling degree programs) is required, which will be credited toward the student’s first-semester tuition.

ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

All international students must establish English language proficiency. RTS provides no testing to meet admission requirements in English language. All international students applying for admission to the M.A. or M.Div. programs must submit at the time of application a score of not less than 550 on the paper-based Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL), or not less than 213 on the computer-based TOEFL. The test must include the writing section (TWE), which is included in the September, October, March, and May administrations.

1. To register for the TOEFL/TWE test, applicants may contact TOEFL/TWE SERVICES, P. O. Box 6151, Princeton, NJ 08541-6151, USA; telephone: 609-771-7100; E-mail: toefl@ets.org; Web site: http://etsweb.ets.org.

2. Applicants who score between 550 and 600 on the paper-based TOEFL, or between 213 and 250 on the computer-based TOEFL, may be required to take additional work in ESL or be limited in the number of hours they may take during any one term.
OBTAINING A STUDENT VISA

The Certificate of Eligibility (I-20) needed for obtaining a student visa for entry into the United States requires certification that the admitted student is proficient in English and has sufficient financial resources to provide for tuition and living expenses. This certification must be on the form I-20 at the time the student appears at the Embassy for a visa. The Admissions Office at the seminary will make certification of English language proficiency based on the scores reported for the TOEFL/TWE.

To be eligible for entry into the United States for seminary study, the completed “Statement of Financial Resources” form with attached documentation (the form is sent upon inquiry from the Admissions Office) must be sent to the Admissions Office. This should be done as soon as possible after the applicant has been notified that his/her application for admission has been approved. The Admissions Office will make financial certification on the I-20 based on funds on deposit in the student’s account and on pledges of support by individuals, churches, foundations, etc.

SPECIAL STUDENTS

An applicant not seeking to earn a degree from Reformed Theological Seminary but wishing to receive academic credit for courses taken may apply as a special student. Up to 18 semester hours earned as a special student may be applied toward a degree. It is important, therefore, to consider carefully the possibility of entering a degree program before earning more than 18 hours as a special student.

To apply as a special student, the following items should be sent to the Office of Admissions:

1. A completed application form.
2. The application fee.
3. A completed Pastoral Reference form.
5. An official transcript indicating an earned bachelor’s degree.

TRANSFER STUDENTS

Students who desire to transfer from other graduate institutions should apply for admission in the usual way, submitting with their application a transcript of their seminary work. A request for transfer credit should be accompanied by a catalog containing the course descriptions from the previous institution. If courses apply to the RTS curriculum, credit may be granted for work completed in accredited schools and receiving satisfactory grades (C). No credit will be given for work that received a grade below C.

Grade point averages on RTS transcripts will be determined on the basis of work done only at Reformed Theological Seminary.

Transfer students may be required to take more than the minimum requirements for graduation because courses taken elsewhere may not be equivalent to those in the RTS curriculum.

MAXIMUM TRANSFER CREDITS

A. An M.Div. student must take at least 36 credits at an RTS M.Div.-degree-granting campus and a total of 54 somewhere in the RTS System.

B. An MAR student must take at least 31 credits at one RTS MAR-degree-granting campus, and an MABS/MATS student must take at least 34 credits at one RTS MABS/MATS-degree-granting campus.

C. An M.Div. student may normally only transfer a maximum of 36 RTS Virtual credits. However in exceptional circumstances, the academic dean may approve a maximum of 52 RTS Virtual credits for an M.Div. student. An MAR student at RTS Atlanta, or RTS Boca Raton, or RTS Washington DC may only transfer a maximum of 29 RTS Virtual credits, and an MABS/MATS student may only transfer a maximum of 32 RTS Virtual credits.

The grade “I” indicates that the work required for the course was not completed. It is given only when special, extenuating circumstances (such as illness) prevent the student from completing the work or taking the examination. A written request for an extension must be submitted prior to the due date of the work concerned. If the request is granted, it remains the responsibility of the student to complete all work for the course as soon as possible. In any case, an “I” grade must be removed within the extension time granted; otherwise it will be changed to “F.”

The grade “W” indicates that a student has withdrawn from a course after the drop deadline. This grade is granted by the academic dean only in extenuating circumstances.

A grade of C or better is required to continue in the sequence of language courses (does not apply to RTS-Charlotte).

NORMAL COURSE LOAD

A normal course load is 12 to 18 semester hours for the fall and spring semesters and two to five semester hours for the winter session. The permission of the Academic Dean must be obtained prior to registering for 19 or more semester hours.

Students who take fewer than 12 semester hours of academic work in a regular semester are classified as part-time students.

Th.M. and doctoral students who take nine or more semester hours of academic work in a regular semester are classified as full-time students.

ENGLISH BIBLE AND CATECHISM REQUIREMENTS

Successful completion of a comprehensive examination in biblical content is required for M.Div. and M.A. Biblical Studies, Theological Studies, Christian Education, and Missions students prior to graduation. This examination may be repeated in a varied form until it is passed. A grade of C is considered a passing grade.

All M.Div. students are required to memorize the Westminster Shorter Catechism.
COURSE ADD AND DROP DATES

Students are permitted to add courses after the first day of class if done so by the add date listed in the academic calendar of the respective campus. An add fee will be charged after the first day of class. Courses may be dropped without academic penalty if done so by the drop date listed in the academic calendar of the respective campus. A drop fee will be charged after the first day of class. No courses may be added or dropped after the deadlines. For refunds related to courses dropped, see the refund policy.

DIRECTED STUDY COURSES

Students may request permission to take an independent, directed study course under the supervision of a professor. Such a course requires the equivalent of 1,000 pages of reading per semester hour in lieu of class attendance, plus a project approved by the professor. The character of the work and the way of reporting it will be left to the professor, but all directed study courses must be approved by the Academic Dean. These courses must be completed within the semester in which they are started. The normal tuition rate is charged for all directed study courses.

Directed study courses usually are offered to cover subjects that are not included in the published curriculum. Regularly scheduled elective and required courses may be taken by directed study upon the discretion of the professor and Academic Dean only when a course is required for graduation and cannot be worked into a student’s schedule.

CLASS ATTENDANCE

Classroom attendance is for the glory of God and preparation for the gospel ministry. Students therefore are expected to attend class sessions. No student should absent himself from classes in order to fulfill requirements or responsibilities of other classes. Those with absences may be penalized at the discretion of the professor.

If students miss class persistently throughout the regular semester, they may be dismissed for academic reasons. In certain exceptional cases, such as extended illness or family crisis, in which it is impossible for students to complete a semester’s work, they may present a written request for permission to withdraw from all courses.

CONDUCT

Student conduct is under the supervision of the Dean of Students. The seminary reserves the right to dismiss any student who engages in inappropriate behavior or whose conduct is found to be unsatisfactory on the basis of the moral, spiritual, and ethical principles found in Scripture and the Westminster Standards after a proper hearing and due process according to the procedures described in the Student Handbook.

Additional rules, procedures, and regulations governing life at the seminary are contained in the Student Handbook.
TERM PAPERS AND EXAMINATIONS

Unless required earlier by the professor, all course assignments, term papers, and reports must be submitted by the deadline listed in the academic calendar for each campus. Upon approval of the Academic Dean, exceptions to this rule may be made by the professor. Extensions will be granted only for causes deemed adequate, and a written request is required.

All examinations must be taken when scheduled. Exceptions to this rule may be made only upon prior request showing adequate cause to the professor concerned, but the rescheduled examination should be taken during the examination period.

DEGREE TIME LIMITS

Students enrolled in the M.Div. and Th.M. degree programs have five years to complete degree requirements. D.Min. students have six years to complete degree requirements; Ph.D. students have seven years to complete degree requirements. Students enrolled in the M.A. degree program have four years (seven years for the MAR via the Virtual Campus) to complete their program requirements. After the maximum time limit has been reached for a degree program, the student may apply for an extension. Doctoral students must register for at least two semester hours each academic year until the completion of their program. Program requirements will be updated to meet the requirements of the current catalog for those given extensions.

WITHDRAWAL/DISMISSAL/READMISSION

A student planning to withdraw from the seminary at any time should report that fact in writing to the Registrar so that his/her academic records may be finalized and transcripts released. Unless the proper withdrawal forms are completed, transcripts will not be released. If a student returns after being out for more than one year, he/she must reapply, pay the application fee, and submit any other information that may be requested by the Director of Admissions.

A student whose GPA falls below C (2.0) after completing 18 hours of coursework is permitted to continue studies for one semester. If the average remains below 2.0, the student is dismissed. After a period of one year, those dismissed for academic reasons may apply for readmission.

The Marriage and Family Therapy curriculum includes clinical and ethical requirements. If the program directors judge that personal or ethical issues impair a student’s ability to function as a therapist, the student may be required to participate in psychological assessment or remedial therapy and/or may be dismissed from the program.

TRANSCRIPTS

Transcripts are released only upon written request of the student. Upon graduation, the student receives a copy of his/her final transcript free of charge provided all accounts at the seminary and in the community have been settled. Additional copies are available at the rate of $10.00 each. Copies of transcripts require three to five working days to process.

DOCTORAL AND TH.M. PROGRAMS

See Attached Tuition and Fee Schedule

Doctoral students must register for at least two semester hours each academic year until the completion of their program.

PAYMENT SCHEDULE

A non-refundable advance payment of $150.00 ($250.00 for the Marriage and Family Therapy and Counseling degree programs) is due upon acceptance into a program. This payment will be applied toward the tuition fee for the first semester.

All additional tuition and fees are due at registration. Those who are depending on financial support from churches, organizations, individuals, etc. should be prepared to meet financial obligations when due, whether or not such funds have been received.

A late payment fee of 1% per month (12% annual) will be charged to students whose accounts are past due and/or are not paid in full at registration. Students will not be permitted to register for a new semester, graduate, or receive transcripts unless all financial obligations to the seminary have been settled, including library debts.

TUITION REFUND POLICY AND DROP/ADD FEE

Students who drop a course before the drop deadline will receive a full refund of tuition. Those who withdraw after the deadline will not receive any refund of tuition.

A charge of $10.00 will be assessed for dropping a course, adding a course, or replacing one course with another unless the change originates with a faculty member or administrative official. A charge of $25.00 will be assessed for dropping a Virtual class course.

AUDITORS/ TUITION FOR SPOUSES OF STUDENTS

Regularly enrolled full-time students (12 hours or more), their spouses, and members of the seminary staff may audit classes without charge provided there is room in the class and they have registered with the Registrar. Others who have permission from the Academic Dean may audit courses after paying the required auditing fee.
The Lord’s people subsidize every student’s education substantially. Tuition pays approximately one third of the actual cost of a student’s education, with the remainder covered by donations to the seminary. In addition, RTS has always maintained a generous financial aid program that may further subsidize a student’s education through scholarships and grants.

Students are requested to initiate the process of receiving financial aid by submitting a financial aid application. Contact the Student Life Office or the Admissions Office on the campus you wish to attend for information about deadlines and forms.

The seminary considers the student to have the primary responsibility for financing his/her education and expects them to do whatever is possible to meet financial needs. This includes arranging support from church, family, and friends in addition to maintaining employment either off or on campus.

Understanding that these sources do not always provide the necessary funding for the student, the seminary, in conjunction with the Lord’s people, has established the scholarship and aid programs listed below.

WORK SCHOLARSHIPS

Students may apply for work scholarships. Scholarships normally are granted for 10 hours of work per week. Jobs include secretarial, clerical, computer services, library assistant, faculty assistant, bookstore, student services, maintenance and grounds, audio-visual, and facilities care.

BASIC TUITION ASSISTANCE

Students having financial need may apply for tuition grant by submitting a financial aid application with their application for enrollment.

DEACON’S FUND GRANTS

Those who need financial assistance beyond work-study and basic tuition assistance may apply for a Deacon’s Fund Grant. These limited grants are awarded based on need. Awards are made in May for the following year.

PRESIDENTIAL GRANTS

A limited number of awards are made each year by recommendation of the Scholarship Committee. A student’s gifts for ministry and vocational goals are taken into consideration for these grants, in addition to financial need. These awards normally are given in May for the following year.

MINISTER’S FAMILY TUITION GRANTS

Family members of ordained ministers may receive annual scholarship assistance for tuition.

CAMPUS MINISTRY GRANTS

Applicants who have served on the staff of a campus ministry for a minimum of one year may receive a campus ministry grant. Written recommendation from the campus minister’s supervisor is required.

CHURCH AND FOUNDATION GRANTS
Several churches and foundations provide scholarship funds for those needing assistance. Some of these are given by recommendation of the seminary, and others must be applied for directly with the church or foundation. More information concerning these grants is available through the Dean of Students, Director of Student Affairs or the Director of Admissions.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Many employment opportunities in the community are readily available to students and their spouses. Job openings frequently are publicized, and assistance may be received from the Student Affairs Office.

PARTNERSHIP AGREEMENTS

The seminary has entered into partnership agreements with several organizations, such as Reformed University Ministries, Campus Crusade for Christ, Campus Outreach, Young Life, and InterVarsity Christian Fellowship. Students involved in a particular ministry may ascertain from the Admissions Office whether the seminary has a partnership agreement with the organization providing special tuition assistance.

CHURCH PARTNERSHIP PROGRAM

The Church Partnership Program fosters significant involvement of the student’s home church with the student and with the seminary. Though the student is always responsible for his financial commitments to the seminary, this innovative program provides tuition assistance to students through an agreement with a student’s home church to share in the student’s financial support. For details of this program, contact a campus admissions office.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT SCHOLARSHIPS

International students should have financial support provided in large part by the indigenous church or missionary society, with the seminary participating to a lesser degree. This arrangement allows for maximum accountability to the sending church or organization and efficient stewardship of the sending church’s resources and those of the seminary.

Therefore, applicants who show evidence of substantial support from their sending churches/organizations will be more likely to receive financial aid from the seminary. Due to the number of international students receiving financial aid from the seminary, it is unlikely that any student will be awarded financial aid beyond tuition costs alone.

To be considered for financial aid from the seminary, an Application for Financial Aid must be sent to the Office of Admissions along with an application for admission. The Admissions Office must receive international student scholarship applications no later than November 1. The Scholarship Committee will make scholarship award decisions by February 1 for those international students beginning their program the following fall semester. Those who are admitted to a degree program will be notified by letter whether or not financial assistance will be provided.

An international student who is awarded financial aid in his/her first year of study at the seminary may anticipate a similar award each subsequent year until the student’s academic program has been completed. However, every international student will be required each year to submit through the Dean of Students an application for financial aid by May 1.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

1CE502
Foundations of Christian Education. 3 hours
A critical study of various approaches to the theological and philosophical foundations of education. The students formulate a personal philosophy of Christian education and define its implications for educational practice.

1CE504
The Teaching-Learning Process. 3 hours
A biblical view of the teaching-learning process provides the major emphasis of the course. Topics addressed include learning theory, age group characteristics, motivation, creativity, and instructional methods.

1CE508
Theology of Ministry to Youth. 2 hours
Subjects included in this course are biblical foundations, the purpose of a youth ministry, the church’s responsibility, the place of the youth director on the ministerial staff, bonding young people with the total church ministry, ministry to families, and the role of parents. The course also examines how theological doctrines relate to youth ministry. Students are encouraged to develop a biblical and theological foundation for ministry to youth.

1CE510
Curriculum Planning. 3 hours
A study of the principles and methods of curriculum design. The major objective of the course is to prepare the student to work with lay people in planning a curriculum for the local church. Students develop curriculum designs for various age groups.

1CE512
Teaching Practicum. 3 hours
Supervised practice teaching using various methods and materials.

1CE514 • 2CE514 • 3CE514
Educational Ministry of the Church. 2 hours
A study of the pastor’s role as teacher and administrator within the educational program of the church. Careful attention is given to philosophy, history, organization, curriculum, recruiting and training teachers, and the special needs of each age group.

1CE601 • 6CE601
Youth Culture Today and Tomorrow. 2 hours
A study of cultural trends affecting adolescents. Students develop skills in analyzing cultural trends and in dealing with their effects on the ministry to youth and families.

1CE604
Youth Communication Guidelines. 3 hours
See PSY516 & 518.

1CE606
Christian Family Nurture. 2 hours
A study of the biblical design of the Christian home. Principles and methods relevant to the role of parents in Christian education receive special attention.

1CE607
Campus Ministry. 2 hours
A study of various strategies for building and directing a campus ministry through the local church or in a parachurch ministry.

1CE609
Small Group Dynamics. 2 hours
A course on group structure and control, building Christian community through small groups, establishing group goals, and building a positive group self-concept.

1CE610
Recreational Ministries. 2 hours
An examination of a Christian view of work and play and the organization and administration of a church recreational program for youth.

1CE614
Biblical World/Life View. 2 hours
This course introduces students to four major areas of religious and philosophical inquiry that constitute a worldview: theology/anthropology; epistemology; cosmology and social-ethical relationships. Each of these areas of thought provides the essential elements in a worldview. We shall follow a chronological development of ideas formed by prominent thinkers from the ancient Greeks up to postmodern times in each of these four topics. We shall note how the ideas of God, humanity, knowledge, the cosmos, society and ethics determine how people live and think. Special attention will focus on how a person integrates his/her presuppositions to form a coherent and consistent world and life view.

1CE 616
Intercultural Education. 2 hours
An examination of cultural differences in the ways people learn, theoretical models of intercultural education and factors that affect the educational process.

1CE618
Entrepreneurial Ministry Development. 2 hours
An exploration and analysis of ministry growth and development for the purpose of helping Christian workers develop knowledge and skills for the proactive stimulus of existing ministries, as well as for the development of new ministries to meet emerging challenges. The course is a research course in which students will study the growth needs of a particular Christian ministry and develop an innovative strategy to address those needs. It is primarily designed for students who are nearing the completion of their studies and wish to integrate their seminary experience with their project-oriented ministry calling.

1CE650
Ministry Communication I. 3 hours
A public speaking course designed to prepare Christian workers to communicate biblical truth in a variety of ministry settings. The course explores communication strategies for public communication in a variety of contexts such as to children, youth, women, ethnic, cross-cultural, and inter-denominational audiences. The first semester concentrates on the dynamics of public speaking.

1CE651
Ministry Communication II. 3 hours
A public speaking course designed to prepare Christian workers to communicate biblical truth in a variety of ministry settings. The course will explore communication strategies for public communication in a variety of contexts such as to children, youth, women, ethnic, cross-cultural, and inter-denominational audiences. The course offers an alternative for students not called to a pastoral preaching ministry. The second semester will focus more on enhancing the particular communication styles required in the student’s specific calling.

6CE701
Foundations for Youth Ministry. 2 hours
This course helps the student develop a biblical and theological foundation for an effective youth ministry. Based upon this foundation, the course presents an overview of adolescent culture and models for youth ministry.

3CE725 • 0CE725
Disabilities and the Church. 2 hours
This course reviews various physical and mental disabilities so that the ministry of the church might be more effective in evangelism and edification of those suffering such problems.

0CE750
Orientation Seminar. 3 hours
An introduction to distance learning techniques, theological bibliography, and academic disciplines in the seminary curriculum.

0CE751
Integrative Thesis. 3 hours
Independent study with a summary review paper of a theological topic from an interdisciplinary perspective based on the seminary curriculum.

0CE752
Integration Seminar. 3 hours
Presentation of the student’s Research Thesis and Online Portfolio from the MA/Distance program and review by faculty and colleagues.

1CE799
Thesis. 6 hours
Masters thesis and defense.

C H R I S T I A N  T H O U G H T

2CT502
Philosophy of Science. 3 hours
This course surveys the history and development of science with emphasis on its assumptions and methodologies, studies the major issues raised by science in the twentieth century, and examines the relationship of contemporary science to the Bible and to Reformed theology.

2CT504
The Clash of Cultures. 3 hours
This course acquaints students with the ideas and forces that cause the rise and fall of cultures and helps them discern what has shaped culture in the twentieth century and what will affect it in the twenty-first century. Attention is given to God’s sovereign role in the rise and fall of cultures and the role believers should play.

2CT506

History of Epistemology. 3 hours
This course focuses on basic epistemological questions. It deals with various sources, types, norms, and justifications of knowledge throughout Western history and includes body-mind philosophies of the modern period. It studies the thought of Plato, Aristotle, Augustine, Aquinas, Bacon, Descartes, Locke, Kant, Marx, Kierkegaard, Sartre, Husserl, Wittgenstein, Reichenbach, Clark, Van Til, Piaget, Langer, Polanyi, Goldman, Rorty, Nash, and Plantinga, evaluating each in light of biblical beliefs.

2CT508

Modern Philosophy and the Christian Faith. 3 hours
Beginning with the work of Immanuel Kant, this course examines most of the major philosophers in the last two centuries, including Hegel, Marx, Kierkegaard, and Whitehead, and evaluates their thought from a Christian perspective.

2CT601

Aesthetics. 3 hours
This course introduces the history of aesthetic thought and assists students in developing their own Christian philosophy of aesthetics. The quest is to determine, from a biblical and Reformed perspective, what beauty is, what art is, and what the legitimate relationship is between beauty and art.

2CT602

Pascal and Postmodernism. 2 hours
A study of the life and thought of Blaise Pascal that explores the relevance of his apologetic method to the postmodern mind and his implicit anthropology, epistemology, and ontology. The course focuses on Pascal’s projected, apologetic work as it is presented in Krailsheimer’s Blaise Pascal: Pensees and in MacKenzie’s Pascal: Apologete Postmoderns.

2CT604

Christians in the Public Square. 2 hours
A historical overview of various Christian approaches to politics, including an examination of the recent and controversial involvement of conservative Christians in the American political arena.

2CT606

Peter Berger and the Sociology of Religion. 2 hours
An introduction to the sociology of religion through a study of the major writings of Peter Berger, including The Noise of Solemn Assemblies, The Sacred Canopy, and A Rumor of Angels. Particular attention is devoted to the insights of Berger’s work for Reformed apologetics.

2CT607 • 6CT607

The Sanctity of Life. 2 hours
This course is designed to enable the student to understand the theological, sociological, medical, and scientific issues surrounding the debates on the beginning and ending of life and how to reconcile them with the belief that human life is sacred.

2CT612

The History and Nature of Atheism. 2 hours
This course will analyze and critique the leading atheists of Western culture in an effort (1) to understand the reason they were atheists and (2) to offer a Christian response to their arguments.

6CT677

The Media in Contemporary Society. 2 hours

1DME811
Pastoral Counseling. 3 hours
This course applies core counseling theory to the pastorate and includes lab experience for integrating theory with specific current pastoral needs.

1DME813
Effective Communication. 3 hours
Effective Communication: Management of difference and forgiveness. Paul describes the church of Christ as a body with diverse, complementary, sinful and often alienated members. God’s people often have a hard time learning to speak the truth with love, to listen before they speak and to forgive as God in Christ has forgiven us. We are often unsure what that entails, where to begin and how to proceed. This course will focus on two areas: 1. effective communication about and management of difference and 2. forgiveness of and reconciliation after wrongs. Students will learn to use biblically responsible methods for communication and forgiveness that have been shown to be effective at facilitating people speaking clearly and from the heart and at promoting the healing of wounds in relationships. The tools have been employed with groups ranging from couples to parent-child relations to business groups to church sessions. Participants will learn theory and rehearse practical skills for use in their pastoral roles.

1DME818
Preaching for Revitalization. 3 hours
This Doctor of Ministry course focuses upon the review and assessment of the pastor’s preaching ministry. The study aims at understanding applying principles that will refresh the pulpit ministry and add to the revitalization of the church. This course can be taken for ICS credit or as an elective credit for preaching. This course is designed primarily for Doctor of Ministry students who are pastors and others in career ministry or mission work who have at least five years of preaching experience. However, the course will benefit others in the full-time Christian work of church leadership.

1DME821
Theology of Ministry – Past & Present. 3 hours
This course examines the nature and the purpose of ministry according to the principles and models presented in the Scriptures, as well as the practice of ministry in the context of the church and its mission in the world.

A general D.Min. directed study of various aspects of Christian ministry.

1DME826
Ethnography: Cultural Exegesis. 3 hours
A research course on the theory, practice, and methods of understanding community and culture. The course is intended to provide research tools appropriate for D.Min. projects, with an emphasis on practical or missional ethnography. The course may be taken for both the intercultural and the pastoral tracks.

1DME832
Phenomenology of the Occult. 3 hours
Offered in conjunction with DMC802 with emphasis on the ethical implications of ministry amidst the rise of the occult in Western society.

1DME834
Ethno-hermeneutics. 3 hours
Ethno-hermeneutics explores the impact of culture in the authoritative interpretation and transmission of biblical texts in contemporary intercultural contexts. The course analyzes hermeneutical theory and practice for the purpose of developing cross-cultural principles of contextualization, faithful to Scripture and meaningful in culture.

1DME836
Engaging Worldviews. 3 hours
Explores major religious worldview systems from both anthropological and theological perspectives, with special attention to issues relating to worldview formation and transformation. Considers implications for contextualizing the Christian message as it encounters other worldviews.
3DME868
The Reformers and Christian Ministry: Reshaping God’s People in the Past and Present. 3 hours
The class will begin with a biblical-theological analysis of the nature of the church and then focus attention upon the Reformation, particularly Calvin’s Geneva. The seventeenth, eighteenth and nineteenth centuries will also be evaluated to see their biblical models of ministry in light of their culture. Nineteenth century analysis will focus particularly on the Southern Presbyterian church. Students will be encouraged to evaluate these models and apply them to their ministries.

3DME871
Theologians of the 20th Century. 3 hours
The teachings of Scripture and with a traditional Reformed understanding. This course aims to provide an overview of 20th century theologians who have significantly influenced the worldwide church. The goals are: (1) to study theologians who have helped to shape the theological agenda of this century, and (2) to compare their views with a traditional Reformed understanding.

3DME901
The Doctoral Project and Research Methodologies.
This course will assist the student to understand the required components of the D.Min. Project and the proper presentation of an acceptable proposal. Faculty from select fields of study will describe the research methods and resources appropriate to various components of the project. Class sessions will consist of both lecture and dialogue with students on their specific topics. Included in the course will be some mandatory research time in the library for building one’s bibliography. As an outcome of the course, students should be able both to craft an acceptable project proposal and to begin the research and writing of the project itself.

Radical Reformers and Pietism. 2 hours
This course surveys the Radical Reformation, including the Anabaptist and Pietistic movements in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries. Both the strengths and weaknesses of each group will be applied to the modern world.

1ST698

Science and Theology. 3 hours
In this course, students analyze the history of the interactions and conflicts between the church and changing scientific views. Particular emphasis is placed on the works of Reformed theologians and the development of a Reformed view of the relationship between science and theology.

2ST710 3 hours
6ST710 2 hours

Eastern Religions and Philosophies.
A study of the predominant Eastern religions and philosophies and their influence in the world today.

2ST711 3 hours
6ST711 2 hours

Twentieth-Century Theologians.
This course includes a study of theologians such as Barth, Bruner, Bultmann, Bonhoeffer, Tillich, Cobb, Moltmann, Pannenberg, Rahner, Kung, and others, analyzing their theologies from a biblical perspective.

2ST716

Modern Views of God. 2 hours
Critical analysis of some significant views of God in recent literature, including process thought, open theism, and feminism. Comparisons and contrasts with Biblical and Reformed teaching.

---

0ST751

Doctrine of the Holy Spirit. 2 hours
An introduction to the person and work of the Holy Spirit. Special attention is given to the biblical theological exposition and the systematic formulation of His ministry. The significance of Pentecost is discussed. The Ordo Salutis is treated in detail, and the doctrine of union with Christ is accented.

4ST777 • 6ST777 • 9ST777

Integrative Paper. 5 hours
Independent interdisciplinary study culminating in a paper synthesizing research and degree program curriculum content.

---

1ST799

Thesis. 6 hours
Masters thesis and defense.

1ST803

Scottish Theology. 2 hours
This survey of major themes in Scottish theology from the Reformation to the present includes the doctrinal development of Scottish Calvinism. Attention will be given to major pastors and theologians in the context of an overview of Scottish ecclesiastical history and historical theology.

Calvin and the Holy Spirit. 2 hours
B. B. Warfield wrote of Calvin as “The Theologian of the Holy Spirit” arguing that his magnum opus, The Institutes of the Christian Religion, was largely taken up with expounding the role of the Holy Spirit in Revelation and Scripture, The Trinity and the Application of Redemption. This course will focus in particular on Calvin’s contributions to Person and Work of the Holy Spirit both in his writings and sermons in an attempt to further a pneumatic understanding of Calvinism and point the way for seventeenth century emphases on a more experiential emphasis to the Spirit’s work.
