Teacher/Professor – This class will be led by James Saxon, an ordained PCA minister since 1979, who has actively served in the pastorate for the last 25 years. He founded and pastored for 20 years, the Tampa Bay Presbyterian Church, in Tampa, Florida and had oversight of the founding of one daughter church, Redeemer Presbyterian Church in Brandon, Florida. He joined the staff of the fast-growing, outreach-minded Church of The Apostles in Atlanta in the fall of 2000. Since coming to Apostles, He has served in a variety of staff roles and has recently assumed the role of Director of Evangelism and Discipleship.

In addition to being a successful church-planter, James spearheaded the founding of the Southwest Florida Presbytery in the early 1990's, and then spearheaded the effort to host the 2000 General Assembly in Tampa by that presbytery. He has just completed his dissertation entitled, "Empowering the Local Church through Mentoring" and is graduating from the Doctorate of Ministry program this spring. His dissertation featured a practicum that field-tested mentoring seminary students as a part of their theological education.

He is currently training approximately one hundred laypersons in a cutting-edge evangelism strategy that inculcates many current ideas and approaches that are successfully being utilized in soul-winning around the country. This strategy and much more will be covered in this course, which will be conducted in a hands-on, interactive atmosphere
