Course Title – Evangelism and Soul-winning (4MS508)

Class Schedule: All Monday nights in April and the first four in May. Meets from 6:00 pm until 9:00 pm each evening. All day practicum – on a Saturday during the course that is convenient to the class participants taking the course for credit.

Purpose of the Course – To help believers fulfill the mandate of II Tim 4:5 - “Do the work of an evangelist, (and) fulfill your ministry.”

Course Description – This Evangelism Training Course is designed to be a practical overview of the ministry of evangelism and soul winning. It is structured to cover the fundamental aspects of the biblical paradigm for evangelism as well as to equip and to train students to actively engage our culture for soul-winning purposes. The atmosphere will be one of highly interactive learning designed to develop in students a balance of knowledge (learning), understanding (equipping), and wisdom (engaging) in the fine art of soul-winning.

Course Objectives:

- The overall goal of the class is to stir our zeal for evangelism, root it in the soil of biblical content, and ground it on the foundation of sound theology.
- To build confidence to overcome the natural fears inherent in doing evangelism.
- To de-mystify evangelism and make it practical and understandable.
- To learn insights, approaches, and practices in evangelism that are current and relevant to reaching lost people in today’s culture.
- To learn a comprehensive view of evangelism as a process, not as point action.

Teacher/Professor – This class will be led by James Saxon, an ordained PCA minister since 1979, who has actively served in the pastorate for the last 25 years. He founded and pastored for 20 years, the Tampa Bay Presbyterian Church, in Tampa, Florida and had oversight of the founding of one daughter church, Redeemer Presbyterian Church in Brandon, Florida. He joined the staff of the fast-growing, outreach-minded Church of The Apostles in Atlanta in the fall of 2000. Since coming to Apostles, He has served in a variety of staff roles and has recently assumed the role of Director of Evangelism and Discipleship.

In addition to being a successful church-planter, James spearheaded the founding of the Southwest Florida Presbytery in the early 1990's, and then spearheaded the effort to host the 2000 General Assembly in Tampa by that presbytery. He has just completed his dissertation entitled, "Empowering the Local Church through Mentoring" and is graduating from the Doctorate of Ministry program this spring. His dissertation featured a practicum that field-tested mentoring seminary students as a part of their theological education.

He is currently training approximately one hundred laypersons in a cutting-edge evangelism strategy that inculcates many current ideas and approaches that are successfully being utilized in soul-winning around the country. This strategy and much more will be covered in this course, which will be conducted in a hands-on, interactive atmosphere.
