RTS Catalog Description:

This overview of the literature, history, and themes of Judges through Esther gives particular attention to the relevance of these books for the church and world today.

I. PURPOSE OF THE COURSE

To gain an adequate comprehension of the Historical Books of the Old Testament from Judges through Esther- including their background, content, interpretation, and criticism- in order to effectively communicate the revealed truths of the Old Testament as it relates to Jesus Christ and His Gospel.

This course shall attempt to accomplish the following goals:

- 1) present an expository approach to the development of redemptive history from the early history of Israel to the post-exilic period;
- 2) examine major theological themes including covenant (e.g., Abrahamic, Mosaic, Davidic), election, the sovereignty of God, the wars of Yahweh, etc;
- 3) acquaint the student with the historical events of the Historical Books as well as pertinent literary and legal parallels found in ancient Near Eastern history;
- 4) acquaint the student to the geography and topography of Palestine;
- 5) introduce and evaluate the salient features of several interpretive methodologies to the Old Testament, including: Source Criticism, Redaction Criticism, Form Criticism, Tradition Criticism, Comparative Religions, Canonical Criticism, and New Literary Criticism;
- 6) evaluate current scholarship on critical matters such as the authorship, dating and unity of the Historical Books pertaining to the critical theory surrounding the so-called “Deuteronomistic History”;
- 7) aid the student in preparation for the preaching of the texts highlighting Christological approaches such as typology, promise/fulfillment, and redemptive-historical.

IV. ASSIGNMENTS

All assignments should be read, completed, and/turned in on or before the due dates scheduled. In fairness to students who do their work on time, late assignments will be reduced one letter grade per day. If more time is needed on any assignment, reasonable excuses will be accepted.

A. Maps of Israel and the Ancient Near East (See Handout)

B. Chart of the Kings of Judah and Israel

Prepare a chart of the all the major kings of Judah and Israel, including the kings of the United Monarchy. Helpful resources include: Eugene H. Merrill, Kingdom of Priests (Grand Rapids: Baker, 1987); and Edwin R. Thiele, The Mysterious Numbers of the Hebrew Kings (Grand Rapids: Eerdmans, 1965).

C. Paper

Write a 10-12 page paper on a major theological theme found in the Historical Books. As an integral part of the paper, show and discuss how these themes relate to the overall narrative plot found in these books. More details will be announced.

D. English Bible Reading

Each student is required to read the books of Judges through Esther during the course of this semester. The final exam will ask whether or not the student has successfully fulfilled this requirement.

E. Examinations and Attendance

There will be a mid-term and a final exam. Each exam is worth 30 points and is equivalent to 60% of the course grade collectively. Although attendance will not be figured into the final course grade, your presence will be required in order to take the exams. Exams will not be “made up” without previous notification.
