

Evangelism – 4MS508
RTS – Atlanta
Dr. James Saxon
Summer of 2010

Course Title – Evangelism and Soul-winning (4MS508)

Class Schedule: Four days - June 16-19, 2010.

All day practicum – Saturday, June 19th, 9-3pm.

Purpose of the Course – To help believers fulfill the mandate of II Tim 4:5 - “Do the work of an evangelist, (and) fulfill your ministry.”

Course Description – This Evangelism Training Course is designed to be a practical overview of the ministry of evangelism and soul winning. It is structured to cover the fundamental aspects of the biblical paradigm for evangelism as well as to equip and to train students to actively engage our culture for soul-winning purposes. The atmosphere will be one of highly interactive learning designed to develop in students a balance of knowledge (learning), understanding (equipping), and wisdom (engaging) in the fine art of soul-winning.

Course Objectives:

- The overall goal of the class is to stir our zeal for evangelism, root it in the soil of biblical content, and ground it on the foundation of sound theology.
- To build confidence to overcome the natural fears inherent in doing evangelism.
- To de-mystify evangelism and make it practical and understandable.
- To learn insights, approaches, and practices in evangelism that are current and relevant to reaching lost people in today’s culture.
- To learn a comprehensive view of evangelism as a process, not as point action.

Teacher/Professor:

Dr. James Saxon, is an ordained PCA minister since 1979, and has actively served in the pastorate for the last 30 years. He was converted to Christ at the age of twenty while a student at the University of Alabama. His conversion was so dramatic that he decided against going into the business world with his Marketing Degree and instead began pursuit of his call to ministry by enrolling in RTS, Jackson in the summer of 1975. After serving as a summer Youth Director for two summers, and taking a year long internship at the well-known Spanish River Presbyterian Church in Boca Raton, Florida, he discerned God's call to go into church planting. After graduating from RTS, Jackson in 1979, he founded and pastored the Tampa Bay Presbyterian Church, in the rapidly growing Metropolitan Region of Tampa, Florida for 20 years. During his years in Tampa, he had oversight of the founding of one daughter church, Redeemer Presbyterian Church in Brandon, Florida. He joined the staff of the fast-growing, outreach-minded The Church of The Apostles in Atlanta in the fall of 2000. Since coming to Apostles, He has served in a variety of staff roles and has recently assumed the role of Director of ApostlesLife.

In addition to being a successful church-planter, James spearheaded the founding of the Southwest Florida Presbytery in the early 1990's, and then led the effort to host the 2000 General Assembly in Tampa by that presbytery. He graduated from the RTS Doctorate of Ministry program in the spring of 2005, completing his dissertation entitled, "Empowering the Local Church through Mentoring" which featured a practicum that field-tested mentoring seminary students as a part of their theological education.

He is currently the director of the ministry initiative entitled ApostlesLife, the outreach ministry strategy for the next twenty years of the church. This core ministry of The Church of The Apostles is a cutting-edge evangelism strategy that inculcates many current ideas and approaches that are successfully being utilized in soul-winning around the country. He also supervises four departments – Childrens, Student, College and Young Adult. Since 2005, he has served as a guest lecturer at RTS, Atlanta and has taught two courses, Evangelism and Pastoral Ministry. Though he is currently involved in outreach ministry, he is a pastor at heart and his life ministry verse is Colossians 1:28 "And we proclaim Him, admonishing every man and teaching every man with all wisdom, that we may present every man complete in Christ."
