Syllabus for PT518 Pastoral Ministry
REFORMED THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY - ATLANTA
FALL, '10
JAMES SAXON
GUEST LECTURER
RTS/ATLANTA

COURSE SCHEDULE: Friday night (6:30-8:30pm) All day Saturday
8:30-4:30pm – Three Weekends August 27-28, September 24-25, October
15-16

COURSE DESCRIPTION: A study of general pastoral care principles based upon the Pastoral Epistles (I & II Timothy, Titus) and will include topics such as personal authenticity, biblical and professional standards of ministerial conduct, etiquette, leadership development, interpersonal relationships, typical problem areas, conducting special services, and potential pitfalls for pastors.

COURSE PURPOSE: To put the finishing touches on students theological preparation to shepherd the flock of God according to His will to the very best of their God-given calling and ability. I Peter 5:2

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

1. The student will learn to draw wisdom, insight, principles, and practices related to pastoral ministry from biblical resources. Class content will flow out of scriptural content.
2. The student will be exposed to the foundations, skills, and functions inherent in pastoral ministry.
3. The course will seek to round out the ministry preparation process for theological students.
4. The course will present an opportunity for students to explore questions and issues not previously covered in their seminary training.
5. The course will challenge students to define pastoral ministry in a way that is biblically based but culturally relevant – framing pastoral ministry that is anchored in the scriptures, but geared to the times.

REQUIRED PAPERS – PRACTICAL MINISTRY ASSIGNMENTS: (40% of course grade)

Four papers are required for the course. Papers must be double-spaced, 12 point/Times Roman typeset with standard margins. Please number your pages.

1. Practical Ministry Assignment #1: Personal Salvation Testimony

An outline will be given in class from which a three page summary will be turned in, briefly describing, your life before God, how you came to know God, and thirdly, how knowing God has changed your life. Due prior to the end of the September 15 class session. For those who have done this assignment in another class taught by me, I would like for you to write a two page statement and explanation of your Life Mission Statement drawing from chapter three of the book Living On Purpose. (see handout)

Length: Three pages, double spaced.

Due: Tuesday, September 15, 2010

2. Practical Ministry Assignment #2: Personal Assessment Profile

You (and your spouse, if married) will complete the PLACE personal assessment. You will write the basic results on a two page report with observations on how you and your spouse blend together toward an effective team ministry. If you are not married, this summary report should include your observations on what would be the highest and best ministry atmosphere for a person with your gifts/strengths profile to minister. This report is due prior to the end of the September 25 class session.

RECOMMENDED ALTERNATIVE ASSESSMENTS:

1. DISC: The Personality Profile (must be purchased)
2. Myers-Briggs Inventory (available online):

Teacher/Professor – Dr. James Saxon, is an ordained PCA minister since 1979, and has actively served in the pastorate for the last 30 years. He was converted to Christ at the age of twenty while a student at the University of Alabama. His conversion was so dramatic that he decided against going into the business world with his Marketing Degree and instead began pursuit of his call to ministry by enrolling in RTS, Jackson in the summer of 1975. After serving as a summer Youth Director for two summers, and taking a year long internship at the well-known Spanish River Presbyterian Church in Boca Raton, Florida, he discerned God’s call to go into church planting. After graduating from RTS, Jackson in 1979, he founded and pastored the Tampa Bay Presbyterian Church, in the rapidly growing Metropolitan Region of Tampa, Florida for 20 years. During his years in Tampa, he had oversight of the founding of one daughter church, Redeemer Presbyterian Church in Brandon, Florida. He joined the staff of the fast-growing, outreach-minded The Church of The Apostles in Atlanta in the fall of 2000. Since coming to Apostles, He has served in a variety of staff roles and has recently assumed the role of Director of ApostlesLife.

In addition to being a successful church-planter, James spearheaded the founding of the Southwest Florida Presbytery in the early 1990’s, and then led the effort to host the 2000 General Assembly in Tampa by that presbytery. He graduated from the RTS Doctorate of Ministry program in the spring of 2005, completing his dissertation entitled, “Empowering the Local Church through Mentoring” which featured a practicum that field-tested mentoring seminary students as a part of their theological education.

He is currently the director of the ministry initiative entitled ApostlesLife, the outreach ministry strategy for the next twenty years of the church. This core ministry of The Church of The Apostles is a cutting-edge evangelism strategy that inculcates many current ideas and approaches that are successfully being utilized in soul-winning around the country. He also supervises three departments – Childrens, Student, College and Young Adult. Since 2005, he has served as a guest lecturer at RTS, Atlanta and has taught two courses, Evangelism and Pastoral Ministry. Though he is currently involved in outreach ministry, he is a pastor at heart and his life ministry verse is Colossians 1:28 “And we proclaim Him, admonishing every man and teaching every man with all wisdom, that we may present every man complete in Christ.”
