COURSE VALUES

THEOLOGY – RTS stands within a distinctive strain of evangelical Christian theology. We are committed 100% to the authority of the Bible and its message of God's lordship, control, and presence. One course goal is that you come to appreciate the contours of a robustly biblical Reformed theology.

COMMUNITY – We believe that there are no "Lone Ranger" Christians, that Christian theology is learned from community and in community. We believe that one of the most important factors in your ability to sustain ministry over the course of a lifetime will be the relationships that you carry through your ministry. One course goal is to afford you the opportunity to step into just such potentially lifelong relationships.

WORLDVIEW – We share with historic Christianity a sense that we are called to take the saving message of Jesus Christ to the ends of the earth. Historically Reformed communities have also had a distinct posture towards questions of "grace" versus "nature" or of "the sacred" versus "the secular." One course goal is to familiarize you with the conversations within "the Reformed camp" about how best to ask the so-called "Christ and culture" question.

WORSHIP – The God of the Bible is known only in worship. We believe that Christian theology is necessarily, therefore, (among other things) a sung and prayed theology. One course goal is to give you the opportunity to develop worship as a "habit of the heart" – to wit, to grow in your love for the Lord and to honor him with your worship as you learn from his Word.

CHARACTER – We believe that theology is done with heart and hands as well as with the mind. We believe that questions about God necessarily lead to questions about ourselves. One course goal is to invite you to consider, through the lens of the "seven deadly sins" and their counterparts in Jesus's beatitudes, what is happening in your own faith journey.

REQUIRED RESOURCES

Athanasius, On the Incarnation. With an Introduction by C. S. Lewis. St. Vladimir's Seminary Press, 1996. (ISBN-13: 978-0913836408).

Donald K. McKim, ed. Calvin's Institutes. Abridged ed. Westminster John Knox, 2001. (ISBN-13: 9780664222987)

Os Guinness, Steering Through Chaos: Vice & Virtue in an Age of Moral Confusion. NavPress, 2000. (ISBN-13: 978-1576831588).

Reggie Kidd, With One Voice: Discovering Christ's Song in Our Worship. BakerBooks, 2005. (ISBN-13: 978-0801065910).

C. S. Lewis, Mere Christianity. 3rd ed. HarperOne, 2001 (ISBN-13: 978-0060652920).

ASSIGNMENTS

Grading

- 10% Reading
- 20% Reflection Paper: Guinness Readings (2,000 words max; due Wed. Dec. 8, by 11:00 a.m.)
- 20% Midterm Exam (take home; due before class Mon. Nov. 1)
- 25% Final Exam (take home; due Tues. Dec. 14, 4:00 p.m.)
- 25% Small Group (weekly participation – Guinness discussion, course material, ministry experience)

RUBRICS FOR REFLECTION PAPER EVALUATION

Logic & Flow: Does the paper state a clear and cogent thesis, and maintain a sustained argument?

Writing Style: Is the paper written in English that is grammatically correct? (A “first person” voice is welcomed – undisciplined “stream of consciousness” is not.)

Use of Sources: Does the paper interact appropriately with sources (citations may conform either to Turabian or to APA)?

Artfulness: Does the paper “sing”?

Reading: On the final exam, you will indicate what percentage of the reading you have accomplished during the semester.

Reflection Paper: Guinness Readings. We’d like you to reflect on how your own faith has been enhanced or challenged or otherwise affected by your study of the “seven deadly sins” and Christ’s Beatitudes. (No more than 2,000 words, due Dec. 8). Suggestions:

- Based on Steering Through Chaos, choose one of the seven deadly sins with which you struggle. Explain why it is so easy to fall into this sin and how you can avoid it. Also include how you can cultivate the corresponding virtue.

or perhaps:

- Read and reflect more extensively on one or more of the sources from which Guinness draws (e.g., Milton, Paradise Lost; Golding, The Spire; Augustine, Confessions) or even that he merely mentions (e.g., Dante’s Divine Comedy).

Take Home Midterm Exam: Combination of objective and essay questions. The focus will be on lectures and on all readings assigned through Week 6. (Due Nov. 1) (We’ll provide sample questions to aid your preparation.)

Take Home Final Exam: Combination of objective and essay questions. The essay portion of the exam will be cumulative, but the objective portion will cover lectures and readings since the midterm. (Due Dec. 14)

On the essay portion you should expect to be asked to compare “Great Church Christianity” (Athanasius & Lewis) and “Great Reformation Christianity” (Calvin). You should be able to identify and assess the offerings of each expression of the faith for answering various challenges arising in the emerging postmodern world.

SMALL GROUP PARTICIPATION

- We know that truth is personal – it is as much “caught” as “taught.”
- We believe your spiritual life is desperately important.
- We have learned from experience that 5, 10, 20, & 30 years from now, friendships you make here & now will be as significant as anything else in sustaining you in ministry.
- We ask you, therefore, to participate in a small group experience beginning Week 3 (9/20.)
- Groups will meet during the last hour of class – attendance is mandatory.
- Read the assigned material in Os Guinness, Steering Through Chaos (as assigned) and participate in your group’s discussion about the seven deadly sins and the beatitudes.
- Your mentor/TA will help you process the lectures and readings, and give you feedback on your writing projects.
- Your mentor/TA will help you as much as you will allow in establishing good devotion and study habits.
- We believe that “theology is application,” that is, something you live, not just think about in your head. So, your mentor/TA will oversee some sort of experience in ministry – exactly how is yet to be determined, as of version 1.1 of this syllabus. Stay tuned!
