I. Purpose of the Course
This course is designed to give you an introductory overview of the ministry of evangelism. The emphasis will be on helping you develop a more biblical and theological understanding of evangelism and equipping you to be more effective in your personal evangelism and in your ministry leadership roles as an equiffer and facilitator of evangelistic ministries.

II. Course Objectives

A Mind for Truth: Deepening Your Understanding
• To understand and articulate a biblical theology of evangelism.
• To understand the role of the church in evangelism, especially as it relates to church planting, growth, and multiplication.
• To understand the cultural barriers to the gospel in a secular post-modern society.
• To understand the role of discipleship, spiritual multiplication, and transferability in evangelism.
• To understand the nature of the gospel and the essential elements of an evangelistic presentation.
• To be acquainted with the literature, programs, and resources presently available for equipping Christians to be more effective in evangelism.

A Heart for God: Transforming Your Affections
• To have a deep, personal conviction concerning the biblical priority of evangelism in Christian ministry.
• To have a broken heart for the lost, especially for those who are presently in your network of relationships.
• To have a personal commitment to pray for evangelistic ministries and for the lost, especially for those who are presently in your network of relationships.

A Life for Ministry: Developing Your Behaviors
• To learn how to present the gospel effectively to individuals, groups, and large gatherings.
• To learn how to start and lead an evangelistic program in the ministry of a local church.
• To be a personal soul winner, “doing the work of an evangelist” (2 Tim. 4:5) as a way of life.
• To be involved in a ministry of spiritual multiplication that is “winning, building, and sending” those who will “win, build, and send” others.

III. Course Format
This course is scheduled to be taught in 10 two and one half-hour classroom sessions beginning Monday, March 5, 2007, and ending Monday, May 7, 2007. Classroom sessions may include: lecture (including guest lecturers), class interaction. Occasionally, individual and small group work sessions may be conducted outside of class time. Group study outside of class is strongly encouraged, including preparation for the final exam.

IV. Course Texts

Required:

Evangelism Reader Articles: A compilation of articles and lectures related to current issues and trends in contemporary evangelism. Will be available online.

V. Course Requirements

A. Attendance and Class Participation

This course requires attendance and participation. Class lectures and discussions will be based on the assumption that you have completed all of the assigned readings which are detailed at the end of this syllabus in the section titled, “Course Schedule and Assignment Due Dates”.

Note: Class will begin promptly at 7:30pm. Tardiness, unexcused absence and/or lack of class participation will impact your final grade.

B. Evangelism Reading & Recorded Lectures (25%)

You are required to read thoughtfully (not simply skim) the following books and articles in their entirety, and report the percentage of the reading you completed in a form on the final exam:

3. Becoming A Contagious Christian by Bill Hybels November 2, 2006
4. Evangelism Reader Articles:
5. Miscellaneous Articles and Lectures to be posted online

B. Outreach Assignment and Report (25%)

1. Outreach Assignment Goals
• Identify a minimum of at least two non-Christians in your present network of relationships. These people must be geographically near (such that you can meet with them face-to-face). If you would also like to identify someone that is not geographically near, you may do so, but this person would be a third person. Students may choose to develop these relationships individually or in teams of 2.

Submit the names of these people on or before March 19. Please do not ask for modification of this assignment. I understand that this is difficult for many of you who have not had the opportunity to developed relationships with non-Christians. For help, refer to Chapter 8 (“Close Proximity”) in Bill Hybels' book, Becoming a Contagious Christian.

• Pray for those people on your list weekly during this period. Students are strongly encouraged to fulfill their weekly prayer commitment during the semester by recruiting someone to pray with and for them at a regular time each week.

• Show them Christ's love. Initiate a friendship. Find out their needs. Establish a common ground. Listen, care, and build a relationship—try not to see such people as merely a class project.

• Invite a non-Christian on your list to join you for some activity such as a meal, a movie, a concert, a sports event, exercising together, an outreach event, a worship service, etc.

• Share your personal story (testimony) and/or the gospel as God gives you the opportunity. Help them take their next steps toward a personal relationship with Jesus Christ.

• Be accountable and share your experiences (whether positive or negative) in the class sessions.

2. Outreach Assignment Report
The student will receive credit for completing this Outreach Assignment by submitting a written report (three to five single-spaced pages) including:

A. The names and descriptions of each person.
B. A description of the relationship developed with each person, including a description of the invitations issued to each person, focusing on the goals in (1) above. The desire is for you to have a meaningful experience with a non-Christian during the semester. If after three sincere invitations to some event, meal, etc., have been made (even if there has been no positive response) this requirement is fulfilled.
C. The results/lessons learned from these outreach experiences. (Sections B and C should be the bulk of your paper.)
D. A specific description of your faithfulness in weekly prayer – by accessing the throne of grace on behalf of these people.

Helpful Suggestion:
Consider interviewing a non-Christian. Explain to an unchurched friend, neighbor or stranger that this is simply a ten-minute interview and is part of one of your seminary (or graduate school) classes. All answers are voluntary and confidential, although you are required to write a brief paper reporting some of the answers given in the interview. See the Spirituality Questionnaire in the Gospel Communication Resources Packet (in the course notebook). This has proven to be a helpful “bridge builder” for many students.

C. Gospel Presentation Assignments (30%)
The goal of the Gospel Presentation assignments is to help you develop a transferable gospel presentation you can use for personal evangelism and for training others in evangelism.

There is no page limit on the Gospel Presentation Paper, but it must include:

a. One aspect of your personal story (testimony) (3 minutes max when spoken).

b. Guidelines for your testimony (as well as other sections of the Gospel Presentation) can be found in the Gospel Communication Resource packet as well as in the class lecture. A presentation of the gospel in prose (as you would present it verbally, not in outline form) that includes:
   - The 4 major biblical concepts:
     i. God
     ii. Man/sin
     iii. Christ
     iv. Repentance and Faith
   - At least one Scripture verse to support each major point within each of the 4 concepts.
   - At least one illustration to support each major point within each of the 4 concepts. (Follow the Five Key Dynamics outline in your course notes to help determine where Scripture verses and illustrations are necessary.)

c. A model prayer of repentance and faith in Christ.

d. A suggested follow-up plan for a new Christian.

e. The name of a gospel booklet (tract) or book the student approves as a useful tool for witnessing and/or equipping others to witness.

Things to consider: On one level, think of this assignment as an opportunity to develop a transferable evangelism presentation that you can use in a church training program. On another level, think of this assignment as a personal letter to a non-Christian family member or friend (you may even want to send your assignment to someone or write it with someone in mind). However, do not overly-tailor your presentation as to make it ineffective for broader future use.

D. Final Examination (20%)
The final exam will be comprehensive and essay in format, including all class reading assignments and lectures. One essay will focus on your gospel presentation. One essay will focus on one or more articles from the Evangelism Reader Articles. Study questions and further information about the final exam will be provided during the last class period. The exam will be a 2 hour take-home exam, thus will require a proctor (proctor will time the exam; can be friend, spouse, etc.). The exam will be open book, open notes.

VI. Grading
Grades will be assigned according to the RTS grading system: 100-97=A, 96-94=A-, 93-91=B+, 90-88=B, 87-86=B-, 85-83=C+, 82-80=C, 79-78=C-, 77-75=D+, 74-72=D, 71-70=D-, below 70=F.

Late Assignments Policy
Please do not ask my teaching assistant or me for permission to turn in an assignment late. All late assignments will automatically be penalized. If you have truly been providentially hindered from completing an assignment on time (such as a death in the immediate family), turn in a written request (to my teaching assistant) asking to wave the late penalty with the assignment. Please discuss any such special circumstances with my teaching assistant. Under any circumstances, no assignments will be received after June 1.
