Reading Requirements BEFORE Class:

1. Read the three required books listed below by the time class starts, with priority on the last one:

2. If some of the more diligent ones finish the three above books, then they can read the following: (see IQWeb for these articles, along with others not required to be read before class)

3. Two chapters out of the following must be read before writing the term paper: