Course Overview

Course Description:

OOT508 Genesis - Joshua, 3 hours
Lecturing Professor and Professor of Record:
Dr. Richard P. Belcher, Jr.

This course covers creation to the promised land through literary, historical, and theological analysis. Major themes are traced through redemptive history as each biblical book is examined. Important theological issues, such as creation, fall, covenant, and law, are examined in the context of the ANE and Israel’s own historical setting. Such analysis is foundational for understanding the rest of Scripture and for how this section of Scripture has meaning for God’s people today.

Course Objectives:

• Acquire a general knowledge of the content of the first six books of the Bible.
• Help the student look at the broad picture of this section of the canon.
• Understand the foundational importance of the Pentateuch for the rest of Scripture.
• Appreciate the richness of the Pentateuch in light of the culture and history of the ANE.

8. Submit Mentor Report/Course Application Paper
Meet the Professor

Lecturing Professor:

Dr. Richard P. Belcher is the Professor of Old Testament and Academic Dean of RTS Charlotte. He is an ordained minister in the PCA and pastored an urban nondenominational church in Rochester, NY for ten years before pursuing the Ph. D. This pastoral experience in an unusual and challenging setting gives him great insight into the practical, modern issues that will be faced by future pastors studying with him at RTS. He graduated from Covenant College and received his M. Div from Covenant Seminary. He also received an S.T.M. from Concordia Theological Seminary, and his Ph. D. is from Westminster Theological Seminary. He has served as stated supply for numerous churches in the area since coming to RTS Charlotte in 1995.

Forum Discussion (15%):
The student is required to interact in two (2) forums:

1. Student-Professor Posts (15 total posts)
   A. Personal Introduction Forum: The student is required to post a brief personal introduction to the professor/class. Suggested details include your vocation, where you live, your church background, why you chose RTS, and what you hope to gain through the course (1 required post).
   B. 5 Topical Discussion Q&A Forums: The student is required to answer each topical discussion question with one (1) response. The professor will acknowledge the student’s answer and will follow up with a subsequent question to which the student must also answer with one (1) response. Each topical discussion question therefore requires two (2) total posts/responses from the student (Total of 5 forums x 2 posts =10 total posts).
   C. Student-Professor Forum: The student is required to post four (4) times in this forum. Posts in this forum should focus on course-related content such as research paper topics, lectures and reading assignments, or other academic issues related to the course.

2. Student-Student Forum (5 total posts)
   • A post may be either a new topic or a response to an already existing topic.

Examinations (Midterm 25%, Final 25%):
There are two examinations for this course. No helps are allowed, including Bibles. The midterm examination will cover the lectures from Lessons 1-10. The final examination will cover the lectures from Lessons 11-22. Both exams may also require reproduction of Biblical book outlines (available in the online classroom). Memorize the outlines and produce them exactly as they are given to you. Besides the outlines, the exam will include multiple-choice identification questions, which consist of terms, names, or concepts that have been discussed in class. There are also short essay questions and long essay questions. Students should use the Lesson Review Questions and Topical Discussion Questions to guide them in their study for the exam.

The midterm and final exams for this course are to be taken online in the Learning Management System (LMS). Please note that you will need to have a proctor for your exams. Your proctor can be anyone except a relative or current RTS Student. After clicking on the exam link you will be given detailed instructions about the exam. Please read these instructions carefully before entering the exam.
Research Paper (25%):
The research paper must deal with one of the law passages in the Pentateuch. However, it cannot focus on one of the ten commandments, but must examine a civil or ceremonial law (found primarily from Exod 20:22 through Deuteronomy, particularly Deut 12-25). See section titled “Research Paper Instructions” in this syllabus.

Reading Report (5%)
Read the assigned reading from your textbooks plus the Biblical books of Genesis through Joshua. To receive full credit, the student must read all of the required readings listed at the beginning of each lesson.

Mentor Report/Course Application Paper (5%):
Each Global/Non-Residential student is required to have a mentor submit a report at the end of the course. This report will contribute to 5% of the student’s grade. For students who are not Global/Non-Residential, you are asked to write a 200 word summary of how you perceive what you have learned in this course will fit into the objectives you have for your ministry, your educational goals, or other objectives you wish to achieve in life.

Assignments:
Best practice for your time management is for you to submit all assignments at the end of the week in which they fall, using the upload links provided in the LMS. All work must be submitted by midnight of the course end date, per your course start letter. You are responsible for turning in all assignments on time; no late submissions are permitted. Any student who needs an extension must get approval from the Registrar prior to that time.

The following questions need to be addressed in the paper:

- Where does this law occur in the Pentateuch?
- What is the significance of its context for its meaning?
- Does this particular law occur multiple times in the Pentateuch?
- If it appears multiple times, what is the significance of the law occurring a second time?
- What is the meaning of this law to the original audience?
- Are there any significant literary, historical, or theological issues related to this law?
- How does this law relate to Jesus Christ?
- What is the meaning of this law for God’s people today?

Note: If you use these questions as an outline or as a guide for content, be sure to use these considerations to strengthen and develop a single, coherent argument. Do not address these questions independent from the main argument of your paper.

The following are criteria that will be used to evaluate the paper:

Cogency of argument:
- Is there a thesis statement?
- How well does the argument hang together?
- How well are pertinent and fundamental points brought out?

The use of sources:
- This is a research paper so avoid study Bibles as a source
- At least one journal article must be cited.
- Use a variety of commentaries (older vs. modern, critical vs. conservative). Read as many commentaries as you can, including conservative commentaries, those from a critical perspective, and at least one older commentary, such as Calvin, Geneva series, etc.
- Research is important and can be included in footnotes. Think of at least 8 sources.
- Discussions of historical context, genre, and redemptive history (where these are appropriate but do not go overboard); just give the reader enough information to understand your paper. Some issues, like authorship, can be omitted or issues and bibliography related to authorship can be given in footnotes.

Biblical Languages:
- You are expected to use as much Hebrew as you are able.
- Make a note on your paper regarding previous coursework in Greek and Hebrew.

Format:
- Use the 8th edition of A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses, and Dissertations, by Kate L. Turabian.
- Do not make a Scripture reference as a footnote, but put it in parenthesis in the paper.
- The paper should be 10-15 pages, double-spaced, numbered, and with one inch margins on all sides, except the left margin should have a 1 1/4 inch margin.
- Do not leave extra space between paragraphs!
