Online Student Handbook

The Online Student Handbook has been designed to assist you in successfully navigating the Distance Education experience, whether you are taking a single course or pursuing a certificate or degree program. In it you will find valuable information, step-by-step instructions, study helps, and essential forms to guide you through every aspect of your distance education opportunity from registration to graduation. Please use this resource as your first-stop reference manual. You will find it located at the RTS Distance Education website (www.rts.edu/distance) under the Student Services tab.

Summary of Requirements

• Follow the Study Guide provided
• Listen to all recorded lectures
• Complete all readings
• Participate in Forum Discussions (with other students and Professor)
• Take the Midterm Exam
• Take the Final Exam
• Submit Reading Report
• Submit your View of Counseling (twice)
• Submit Two Case Studies
• Submit Mentor Report/Course Application Paper

Forum Discussions (15%)

The student is required to interact in two (2) forums:

1. Student-Professor Posts (15 total posts)
   A. Personal Introduction Forum: The student is required to post a brief personal introduction to the professor/class. Suggested details include your vocation, where you live, your church background, why you chose RTS, and what you hope to gain through the course (1 required post).
   B. 5 Topical Discussion Q&A Forums: The student is required to answer each topical discussion question with one (1) response. The professor will acknowledge the student’s answer and will follow up with a subsequent question to which the student must also answer with one (1) response. Each topical discussion question therefore requires two (2) total posts/responses from the student (Total of 5 forums x 2 posts =10 total posts).
   C. Student-Professor Forum: The student is required to post four (4) times in this forum. Posts in this forum should focus on course-related content such as research paper topics, lectures and reading assignments, or other academic issues related to the course.

2. Student-Student Forum (5 total posts)
   • A post may be either a new topic or a response to an already existing topic.
Examinations (Midterm 15%, Final 15%)

There are two examinations for this course. The midterm exam will cover all the lectures and readings from Lessons 1-6; the final exam will cover all the lectures and readings from Lessons 7-12. Both exams consist of five essay questions from the required reading and lectures. The midterm and final exams for this course are to be taken online in the Learning Management System (LMS). Please note that you will need to have a proctor for your exams. Your proctor can be anyone except a relative or current RTS Student. After clicking on the exam link you will be given detailed instructions about the exam. Please read these instructions carefully before entering the exam.

Reading Report (10%)

The student must complete all of the required reading. Reading assignments are broken down week by week within the LMS. The Reading Report will indicate the amount of required reading that has been completed during the semester and must be filled out and submitted at the end of the course with your final exam. Please click on “Submit Assignment” and provide the following information:

• Your Name
• Percentage of Required Reading you have completed
• Your course end date

My View of Counseling (5%, 5%)

The student will submit two papers titled “My View of Counseling” worth 5% each. The first paper will be submitted at the beginning of the course, and the second at the conclusion of the course. Each paper should be 2-4 pages in length and include an honest assessment of their current view of counseling and the role it plays in pastoral and church ministry.

The first paper should address issues related to:

• The importance of counseling in a ministry setting
• The role the pastor or church leader has in counseling
• The method or mode of counseling that the student would employee

The second paper should address issues related to:

• How the individual students view of counseling has changed since taking the course
• Which method the student would now employee in counseling (and why)
• The role the pastor or church leader has in counseling
• The importance of developing a philosophy of ministry

Case Studies (15%, 15%)

The student will read and respond to two case studies as found in Lessons 5 and 10. Each response to the case study should be at a minimum of five pages (max of 8) and interact in a thoughtful, in-depth, and practical method offering up a recommended course of action with the questions supplied at the end of the case study. The report should be written in paragraph style following Turabian style formatting.

Mentor Report/Course Application Paper (5%)

Each Global/Non-Residential student is required to have a mentor submit a report at the end of the course. This report will contribute to 5% of the student’s grade. For students who are not Global/Non-Residential, you are asked to write a 200 word summary of how you perceive what you have learned in this course will fit into the objectives you have for your ministry, your educational goals, or other objectives you wish to achieve in life.

Assignments

Best practice for your time management is for you to submit all assignments at the end of the week in which they fall, using the upload links provided in the LMS. All work must be submitted by midnight of the course end date, per your course start letter. You are responsible for turning in all assignments on time; no late submissions are permitted. Any student who needs an extension must get approval from the Registrar prior to that time.
