COURSE: 4DM874 Understanding Evangelicalism in Modern Ministry
PROFESSOR: Howard Howoo Lee, Ph.D.
SESSION: September 26(Mon)-29(Thu), 2011

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course is designed to understand evangelicalism historically and theologically for the church ministries in the variety of the cultural environments today. With special reference to pastoral and ecclesiastical stances, it deals with particular issues in relation to modern ministries such as theological uniqueness, biblical interpretation, church growth, missions, ethics, the charismatic movement, spirituality, evangelism, politics, and so on. The goal of this course is to define the evangelical challenges or tasks for the enhancement of modern ministry.
