Course Description:

The catalogue course description for 4ST502, Introduction to Pastoral and Theological Studies, states that the purpose of this course is “An introduction to biblical, theological, and practical ministry studies within the Reformed tradition.”

Class Schedule:
Fridays/Saturdays – 6:00-9:00pm; 8:30-4:30pm
January weekends – 6 & 7, 13 & 14, 20 & 21, 27 & 28

Objectives:

1. To offer a comprehensive overview of foundational theological terms that will orient each student to the world of theology and empower them toward authentic and meaningful reflection, conversation, and influence in the theological arena.
2. To offer a comprehensive overview of the history of theology that will orient each student to theological development as it occurred in time.
3. To review the core elements of a Life Calling and have each student submit a personal assessment of where they are in God’s calling to personal ministry.
4. To offer a summary of the core elements of a basic philosophy of ministry, flowing out of a theological foundation.
5. To familiarize students with the Westminster Confession of Faith, the basic conceptual framework of Reformed Theology.

Writing Assignments: (All papers emailed into the professor must have your name and the specific paper assignment on the cover sheet)

1. Life Calling Reflection Paper – A summary of your current perception of how God is shaping your Life Calling to Personal Ministry (1-2 pages, double-spaced). Due Saturday, January 20th, 5pm.

2. Church Theological Vision & Philosophy of Ministry Paper - Submit a 3-page, double-spaced paper on the Theological Vision/Philosophy of Ministry of the church where you now attend. Allow yourself to attend on a Sunday as a ‘visitor’ and see the church through the eyes of a new person. In order to collect data, attend a Sunday School class, a small group, a worship service, and talk with the church leaders. Carefully observe what you see and hear. Pick up literature from the church and visit the church website. And then, after having collected sufficient data, write a three page double spaced paper on this basic question: What theological vision did you see at that church? Remember, every church has a theology, whether explicitly stated or not, which drives everything it does. It also has a style of ministry that shapes what it does. So, what did you observe? What did the church present about God, about Christ and the gospel, or anything else you observed about its priorities? For instance, if the church had 15 minutes of announcements, 5 minutes of singing and 40 minutes of preaching, what does that tell you about the church’s priorities, and thus about its theological vision? I would encourage you to pair up with another student, and after visiting each other’s churches, share observations of each other’s churches. This will help you not miss the obvious. Due Friday, February 24th, 5pm.

3. Westminster Confession of Faith Chapter Summary – Read the Confession and submit a one paragraph (not less than 5 sentences) summary of each chapter. Due Friday, March 16th, 5pm.

Quizzes: Lists of Theological Terms will be given after the weekend classes from which a brief quiz will be emailed the following Monday (9, 16, 23, 30) and should be turned in the next day (Tuesday) by 8am.

Final Exam: A final exam consisting of theological terms from the weekly quizzes and a few reflection questions on the course material will be emailed to everyone on Friday, February 3rd and must be sent back on or before 5pm on Friday, February 10th.

Extension Policy

All assignments and exams are to be completed by the deadlines announced in this syllabus or in class.

Extensions for assignments and exams due within the normal duration of the course must be approved beforehand by the Professor. Extensions of two weeks or less beyond the date of the last deadline for the course must be approved beforehand by the Professor. A grade penalty may be assessed.

Extensions of greater than two weeks but not more than six weeks beyond the last deadline for the course may be granted in extenuating circumstances (i.e. illness, family emergency). For an extension of more than two weeks the student must request an Extension Request Form from the Student Services Office. The request must be approved by the Professor and the Academic Dean. A grade penalty may be assessed. (RTS Catalog p. 42 and RTS Atlanta Student Handbook p. 14)

Any incompletes not cleared six weeks after the last published due date for course work will be converted to a failing grade. Professors may have the failing grade changed to a passing grade by request. (RTS Catalog p. 42)

Teacher/Professor – This course will be led by Dr. James Saxon, an ordained PCA minister since 1979, who has actively served in the pastorate for the last 32 years. He was converted to Christ at the age of twenty while a student at the University of Alabama. His conversion was so dramatic that he decided against going into the business world with his Marketing Degree and instead began pursuit of his call to pastoral ministry by enrolling in RTS Jackson in the summer of 1975. After serving as a youth director for two summers, and taking a year internship at the well-known Spanish River Presbyterian Church in Boca Raton, Florida, he discerned God’s calling to go into church planting. He founded and pastored the Tampa Bay Presbyterian Church, in Tampa, Florida for 20 years and had oversight of the founding of one daughter church, Redeemer Presbyterian Church in Brandon, Florida. He joined the staff of the fast-growing, outreach-minded Church of The Apostles in Atlanta in the fall of 2000. Since coming to Apostles, he has served in a variety of staff roles and has recently assumed the role of Director of ApostlesLife.

In addition to being a successful church-planter, James spearheaded the founding of the Southwest Florida Presbytery in the early 1990’s, and then led the effort to host the 2000 General Assembly in Tampa by that presbytery. He graduated from the RTS Doctorate of Ministry program in the spring of 2005, completing his dissertation entitled, “Empowering the Local Church through Mentoring” which featured a practicum that field-tested mentoring seminary students as a part of their theological education.

He is currently the director of the ministry initiative entitled ApostlesLife, a twenty year outreach ministry strategy. This core ministry of The Church of The Apostles is a cutting-edge evangelism strategy that inculcates many current ideas and approaches that are successfully being utilized in soul-winning around the country.

He also supervises four departments – Children’s, Student, College, and Young Adult Ministries. Since 2005, he has served as a guest lecturer at RTS Atlanta and has taught two courses, Evangelism and Pastoral Care. This summer he will be teaching Introduction to Pastoral and Theological Studies. Though he is currently involved in outreach ministry, he is a pastor at heart and his life ministry verse is Colossians 1:28, “And we proclaim Him, admonishing every man and teaching every man with all wisdom, that we may present every man complete in Christ.”
