10 Krupski Loop; Lookout Mountain, GA 30750-4503

Texts, Required:

Davis, “Frame in the Context of Recent Apologetics” (from Speaking the Truth in Love, pre-publication draft sent via e-mail)

(Texts, Recommended: Oliphint, Scott, The Battle Belongs to the Lord)

Exams:

Final Exam distributed January 5, due by January 19, 2013 (postmarked or e-mailed)

Papers:

Students will complete one of the following. Final Draft is due February 5, 2013 at midnight (by e-mail or postmark).

#1. Apologetic Exchange: focused and annotated e-mail text of an apologetic exchange with a non-Christian. Target length (total): 3500 words. [Notes: (a) A first exchange (at least one substantive e-mail from each party) showing the potential of the contact is due on January 19. (b) Annotation/commentary should not exceed 50% of this exercise.]

#2. Meta-Apologetic Critical Assessment: a 3000-word explanation and assessment of a source published in the last ten years (2002 or later) dealing with apologetics. The assessment should focus on methodological matters. [Notes: (a) If a Rough Draft is submitted by January 30, it will receive comments and suggestions. The Final Draft would then be due one week after the comments were returned or February 9, whichever is later. (b) Only one student may write on a particular source, so first-come, first-served.]

#3. Apologetic Response: a 3000-word response to an attack leveled against the faith published in the last five years (2002 or later). [Notes: (a) If a Rough Draft is submitted by January 30, it will receive comments and suggestions. The Final
Draft would then be due one week after the comments were returned or February 9, whichever is later. (b) Only one student may write on a particular source, so first-come, first-served.]

Participation: In-class activities (debates, puzzle solutions, role-playing, etc.) will contribute to this portion of the grade, along with attendance.

Grading: Grades will be calculated using the following percentages:

- Final Exam............................................. 40%
- Paper ...................................................... 45%
- Participation......................................... 15%

Extension Policy

All assignments and exams are to be completed by the deadlines announced in this syllabus or in class.

Extensions for assignments and exams due within the normal duration of the course must be approved beforehand by the Professor. Extensions of two weeks or less beyond the date of the last deadline for the course must be approved beforehand by the Professor. A grade penalty may be assessed.

Extensions of greater than two weeks but not more than six weeks beyond the last deadline for the course may be granted in extenuating circumstances (i.e. illness, family emergency). For an extension of more than two weeks the student must request an Extension Request Form from the Student Services Office. The request must be approved by the Professor and the Academic Dean. A grade penalty may be assessed. (RTS Catalog p. 42 and RTS Atlanta Student Handbook p. 14)

Any incompletes not cleared six weeks after the last published due date for course work will be converted to a failing grade. Professors may have the failing grade changed to a passing grade by request. (RTS Catalog p. 42)

MDiv* Student Learning Outcomes

In order to measure the success of the MDiv curriculum, RTS has defined the following as the intended outcomes of the student learning process. Each course contributes to these overall outcomes. This rubric shows the contribution of this course to the MDiv outcomes.

As the MDiv is the core degree at RTS, the MDiv rubric will be used in this syllabus.

<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Strong</td>
<td>Course Essay (Apologetic Exchange, Meta-Apologetic Assessment, or Apologetic Response) each require students to analyze and assess current challenges to the rational viability of Christian faith commitments. Successful essays will be able to articulate command of key biblical and theological concepts and presuppositions. Required readings and class lectures provided background material and clarification of the needed concepts of presuppositions.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Moderate</td>
<td>The Reformed tradition in Apologetics is rich and subtle, but more in the practices of the tradition than in the doctrinal standards and symbols. Close attention is given to the history of Reformed practice.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Minimal</td>
<td>Reformed Apologetics insists on defending faith in the Triune God of the Bible (and not just a general theism); moreover, faithful defenses of Christian faith start in the practices of the tradition.</td>
