Pastoral and Social Ethics (6ST528)
3 credits
Spring 2012

Instructor: Geoffrey M. Sackett
Contact info: gsackett@rts.edu

Wednesdays, February 1 – April 25 (no class week of April 1) 12:00 p.m. – 3:00 p.m.

I. Office Hours

By appointment. I’m delighted to meet with you – please feel free to contact me.

II. Course Description

This course examines biblical Christian ethics – its foundations, norms, and application to pastoral and social issues. We will also consider alternative ethical systems and the apologetic function of Christian ethics.

III. Goals and Expectations

We will seek to –

a. Grow in our confidence in scripture as the ultimate norm for ethics
b. Improve in our ability to make ethical decisions that are honoring to the Lord
c. Enhance our ability to evaluate alternative ethical systems
d. Grasp the centrality of God’s grace as we seek to live the blessed life as defined by scripture

Since we will spend a portion of class time analyzing and discussing our texts, along with the ramifications of their ideas for life and ministry, it is important that we have read our texts by the assigned date. Please bring the assigned reading with you to class each day.

IV. Required Texts

J. Douma, The Ten Commandments
David Clyde Jones, Biblical Christian Ethics
Jay Adams, Marriage, Divorce, and Remarriage in the Bible

Various articles will be made available via Self-Service.
V. Evaluation and Assignments

1. Ten quizzes. (20%) No quiz the first day of class.
2. Précis on Adams. (20%) Due February 22.
4. Paper. 5-7 pages. (20%) Due April 11.
5. Final exam. (20%) Due May 2. Covers lectures and reading.

More information about the assignments will be given in class early in the semester.
