COURSE OBJECTIVES:

1. To glorify God by and while learning to read the New Testament in its original language.
2. To enable the student to read and translate from portions of the Greek New Testament.
3. To aid the student in preparation of teaching the Scriptures.
4. To equip the student to understand lexical aids and commentaries on the New Testament.
5. To enable the student to produce an exegetical paper on a passage from the Greek New Testament.

REQUIRED Texts:

REQUIRED Software:

☐ BibleWorks. Instruction in this software (and required assignments) will be provided.

REQUIREMENTS:

Attendance: Students are required to attend class lectures and discussions. If you know you cannot make it to a class session, you must notify the instructor in advance. Failure to attend a significant number of classes with “significant” being defined at the discretion of the instructor may result in failure of the class.

Class Preparation: Students will be expected to thoroughly prepare the assigned passage for each class section with the assistance of the course texts. Students should come to class prepared to read the passage aloud, translate without notes, and answer questions regarding the passage.

Assignments: A detailed list of class sessions and assignments will be provided to all students at the first class session of the semester.

Final Exam: The final exam will include the same type of material included in the homework and/or quizzes.

Exegetical Paper: Using the insights from the class, each student will write an exegetical paper on the assigned passage.

TOTAL GRADE:

The final grade for the course will be the total of each of the required assignments listed above.

Class Preparation (20%)
Assignments (30%)
Final Exam (25%)
Exegetical Paper (25%)

The instructor reserves the right to adjust grades based on each student’s attendance at class and participation in classroom exercises.
