

What Can IQ Web Do For You?

Below is a list of the various features of IQ.Web which are available to students along with a brief explanation of each.

Change Demographics – This feature allows you to update information about such things as your marital status and denomination.

Maintain Addresses – This feature allows you to update your address information. Any changes you make here will be reflected in the Online Directory.

Course Catalog – This feature allows you to search an online catalog for course descriptions.

Find Course Sections – Using this feature, you can see what classes are being offered in upcoming semesters and download syllabi for those classes.

Degree Requirements – This feature allows you to view the degree requirements for all of the programs offered by RTS.

Course Schedule – This feature allows you to view your current schedule in either a text or grid format.

View Grades – You can use this feature to view your grades for any semester in which you took classes.

Online Registration – This feature allows you to register for classes in the upcoming semester. You can also make changes to your schedule any time before the semester begins.

Course Home Page – Some classes which you are enrolled in will have a course home page. On that page you can access announcements posted by the professor, grades on assignments/quizzes/tests, and syllabi and other media posted by the professor. You can also send messages to other members of the class and the professor from this page.

Academic Plan – Your academic plan will show you the progress you are making towards your degree by marking the classes you have completed, those which you are currently taking, and those which you have yet to complete. You can also create “What if?” scenarios that tell you how your coursework would transfer over if you decided to change your degree program. Be sure you select the Year/Term you first enrolled at RTS.

Unofficial Transcript – This feature allows you to view/print an unofficial transcript.

Account Information – Here you can access the history of charges and payments on your account in a given year and term.

Current Balance – This feature shows you your current balance. Eventually, you will also be able to pay your bills online using this feature.

Online Directory Search – This feature allows you to search an online directory of both Faculty and Students and access their contact information and see their current schedule.
