Book Discussion Group: Lost Women of the Bible by Carolyn Custis James
Women of RTS are invited to explore what it means to live as the women that God designed us to be...What does Scripture say about the strength and significance of women, uniquely created in the image of God? The group will use Carolyn Custis James' book, Lost Women of the Bible, as a guide and will meet Thursday afternoons from 2:30 to 4:00 on the RTS campus. If you are interested, please email April Pence (apence@rts.edu) or Amber Wong (awong@rts.edu)

Women in Ministry
Join us Thursday, October 20th at 7:00 p.m. at RTS! Our guest speakers will be Reverend Chuck DeGroat and his wife, Sarah. Both Chuck and Sarah graduated from RTS with counseling degrees. Currently, Chuck is a counselor, writer and an adjunct professor at RTS. You won't want to miss this special evening with the DeGroats! Women in Ministry is a ministry for all women affiliated with RTS that provides fellowship, fosters connection to the broader seminary community, equips us to build the kingdom in our respective callings, and encourages us to live passionately in submission to Christ. Meetings are held every other Thursday evening at 7pm at RTS.

January Hebrew: What’s Best for You?
The answer to that question is yours to find. If you plan to take Hebrew in January 2008, you must decide which track you will take by December 1, 2005. Each January, Hebrew I is taught in a two-week intensive class, to prepare you for Hebrew II in the spring and Hebrew III in the fall. Those who elect to take the Advanced Track will be equipped (well, as close as you can get) at the end of their third semester to take Dr. Bruce Waltke’s elective class, Hebrew Syntax. After that you will be equipped to take over the world. Consent of Dr. Futato is required to enroll in the Advanced Track, and you cannot switch tracks “mid-stream.” For more information on which Hebrew class you should take, see the informational flyer in the student commons entitled, “January Hebrew: What’s Best for You?”
