RTS WiM presents:
Becoming a Woman of Safety & Strength

Living out the Gospel in the Context of Community

Guest Speaker: Julie Sparkman

Cocoa Beach Holiday Inn
Friday-Saturday, October 6th-7th
Becoming a Woman of Safety & Strength

“I can just be who I am, warts and all, and be accepted...”

We often define biblical community by this statement alone. Yet as vital as it is for the body of Christ to be a “safe” place, we are also called to offer strength to others. Is there one thing to be the one that someone can tell their struggles to, yet once they do, how do we respond? As redeemed women, we are often left struggling to connect the gospel of grace that saved us with the issues we face as we journey with others towards Christ-likeness.

Using her experience as a pastoral counselor, speaker, Julie Sparkman, will not only renew your vision for building into others, but also provide practical application, and tools to help you live out your calling to experience and extend the Message of grace.

This is my life work: helping people understand and respond to this Message.

Ephesians 3:7–The Message.

Sessions will include...

- Tasting His Goodness...
  You can’t offer what you’ve not tasted...
  Experiencing afresh, the hope of the Gospel for ourselves.

- The Beauty of Exposure...
  Facing our constant need for redemption in a way that brings freedom rather than shame.

- Our Hope for Change...
  Practically applying the tenants of the gospel of grace with the goal of Christ-likeness in ourselves and those we relate to.

- Offering Ourselves to Others...
  Pointing others to the Savior rather than attempting to be Him.
