

Cliffs of Moher

RTS Church History Tours offers:

Celtic Christianity and the Beauty of Ireland

September 4-13, 2008

10-day tour of Ireland and Northern Ireland

(based on 22 participants, cost is $3250)

Purpose: to learn the impact of Celtic Christianity and to visit the breathtaking scenery of the island as we learn of its history over the past 5000 years and into the 21st century.

Join Reformed Theological Seminary as we visit the beautiful island of the Republic of Ireland and Northern Ireland. Local guides add to the historical perspective of Dr. Don Fortson, Professor of Church History at RTS-Charlotte as we learn of the Iron-Age settlements, St. Patrick, British influence, the Great Famine, “the troubles,” and Ireland’s economic resurgence.

Price includes airfare from Charlotte to Dublin and return

Hotels in 6 different cities and towns

14 meals and all admission fees

Killarney National Park

Dublin Castle

St. Patrick's Cathedral

Cities and sites visited:

Dublin, Trinity College, Book of Kells, Dublin Castle, St. Patrick's Cathedral, Glendalough, Kilkenny, Kilkenny Castle, Rock of Cashel, Limerick, St. John's Castle, Killarney National Park, Ring of Kerry, Cliffs of Moher, The Burren, Galway, Clonmacnoise Monastery, Ulster—American History Park, Loch Neagh, Newtownabbey, Carrickfergus Castle, Belfast, “troubles area,” Down Patrick Cathedral, Monasterboice, High Cross of Murdoch, Valley of the Boyne, Hill of Tara, Battle of the Boyne, Bru na Boine, Newgrange.

For more information, including a daily itinerary, go to www.rts.edu/cht or e-mail Luther Bigby (cht@rts.edu) or call him at home at 704 847-4187.