In 1974, Billy Graham convened 2,700 Christian leaders in Lausanne, Switzerland to mobilize the global Church and respond to the issues of their day. October 16–25 in Cape Town, South Africa 4,000 pastors, teachers, ministry professionals, and young visionaries from more than 200 countries will continue the tradition to determine how today’s Church responds to our own challenges. To prepare for Cape Town, 12 cities will host 12 Conversation Gatherings to hear from this generation on the issues. Will you join the conversation?
