Recommended:

REQUIREMENTS AND EVALUATION:

I. Class attendance and discussion (15% of course grade).

You will be expected to participate in the class discussion, especially as we interact with the lecture topics, textbooks and assigned reading.

II. Reading (25% of course grade):

Reading is required and the student will be graded through an honor system report provided in the paper assignment below.

III. Paper (25% of course grade)

One short paper is required for the course. The paper must be double-spaced, 12 point/Times Roman typeset with standard margins.

You will write a five-page paper interacting with both the required and reserved reading books you have read for the course. NOTE: Please list the works read and pages you have read in all books. Explain in the paper why you chose the particular works on reserve to read.

Answer the following questions: 1. How do the various authors reflect their individual devotion to God? 2. Are there any meaningful quotes or concepts you can state? What have they taught you? 3. How have you been encouraged personally by these writings? 4. What is the impact on your own views of personal devotion(s)? 5. What type of plan or structure will you attempt to create in order to strengthen and maintain your personal devotional life, both now in seminary and in your future ministry? 6. Any other thoughts you might wish to write, including the value of the course and its readings and/or suggestions for helpful improvement.

Due: February 8, 2007.

IV. Final Exam (35% of course grade)

The final exam will be a proctored comprehensive, written exam that will cover content primarily from all of the lectures.

NOTE: You cannot take the final exam until you have turned in the paper, but you can take the final exam any time after turning in the paper.

Due: February 15, 2007

POLICY ON CHEATING AND PLAGIARISM: Cheating is the use of another person’s work on behalf of your own work, with the assumption being that it is your work. The MLA Handbook for Writers of Research Papers says, “To plagiarize is to give the impression that you have written or thought something that you have in fact borrowed from someone else.” Plagiarism is the use of ideas, information and content from a particular source without giving credit to that source by footnoting the source or accounting for it in a bibliography. Cheating will result in an automatic zero (0) grade for the assignment, paper or exam involved. Plagiarism, whether intentional or unintentional, is considered academic theft. The RTS academic consequences of plagiarism are as follows: 1) First offense: The student must rewrite the paper and receive no better than a passing “D” grade for it. 2) Second offense: The student fails the entire course.

POLICY ON LATE WORK: Any work turned in late and without either a written excuse or previous permission granted by the professor will be docked one point/day for that assignment.

POLICY ON GRAMMAR AND SPELL CHECK: Any work turned in which appears to lack “proofing” or displays poor grammar will receive a small penalty affecting the grade.
